Trio Charged After Raid At Weirton Club

Hearings Scheduled Monday Morning In Lottery Allegations

WEIRTON — Pulling the second daylight raid in eight days, Weirton police made three arrests at the Serbian Athletic Club in the downtown area and confiscated a quantity of lottery equipment Thursday afternoon at 4.

Five officers, headed by new Chief Ed Frankovich, obtained search and seizure warrants from Municipal Judge Martin S. Borogard in acting on information compiled earlier by Patrolman Milan Vidich.

Patrolman Vidich had purchased a ticket on a horse race at a New York race track, police said.

Police said Nick Vuckovich, 52, and Ali Musmarakis, 73, both of Weirton, are charged with permitting a lottery to be operated on the premises of the SAC establishment, located in the upstairs of a Main St. building also housing a tavern. The two are listed as the owners of the SAC.

Louis Gresko, 45, of Weirton is charged with being concerned in a lottery, police said.

Released on their own recognizance, the three are slated for

'Early Darkness' Due In Eclipse Tomorrow

When the sky begins to turn dark late Saturday afternoon, don't rush to the telephone to call firemen, police or the newspaper. Remember, it's that well-heralded eclipse that will blot out 85 per cent of the sun's surface, but only briefly.

The gradual dimming will begin about 4:37, reaching its climax at 5:40. By 6:31, it will all be over.

Medical authorities across the nation have warned against viewing the eclipse directly, even if using sunglasses, a darkened photographic negative or some such makeshift device. The painless infra red rays of the sun can cause severe damage to the eyes — even blindness — in brief exposure, they warned.

Station A Facility

Post Office Rite Due Sunday At 2

Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District congressman, will make the dedicatory address and William J. Rahter, assistant to the Cincinnati regional director, also will speak at the dedication of the new Station A postal facility in East End Sunday afternoon.

The program will open at 2 in the gymnasium of East Junior High School with a 30-minute concert by the high school band, directed by Vincent Maola.

Postmaster Samuel W. Brown will speak briefly and introduce E. R. Chandler, executive manager of the Chamber of Commerce, who will serve as master of ceremonies.

The Rev. Harold Estel, pastor of the Oakland Free Methodist Church, will give the invocation and George Hargraves, assistant superintendent — designate of city schools, will give the welcome.

FOLLOWING REP. Hays' talk, Ernest Lowe will sing "The Lord's Prayer" with his wife as

New Lock On Barn Door

U.S. Tightens Regulations After Grain Disappeared

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. government has put a new lock on the barn door since 24 million bushels of American grain vanished in the sleight of hand of European trade.

The huge amounts of feed grain were destined for Austria but were last seen officially at West German ports.

Apparently the grain — purchased at a discount of 7.5 to 9 per cent — was diverted by the Austrian importing firms to more favorable markets in countries not eligible for the shipments, a violation of the contracts the importers had with the Agriculture Department.

Since discovery of the deal, the department has tightened its regulations requiring the buyers to prove the commodities reached their proper destination. The buyers must provide bonds to assure compliance.

accompanist. Rahter then will speak.

An American flag which has flown over the U. S. Capitol and the Post Office Department in Washington will be presented to Brown by Rep. Hays. American Legion Post 374 will present a flag for daily use at the office.

Following the flag presentation, the group will move to the new Station A office at 1711 Pennsylvania Ave. for the remainder of the program.

It will include raising of the flag by the Post 374 color guard, the national anthem by the high school band, and benediction by the Rev. R. L. Lattimore of the New Hope Baptist Church.

FOLLOWING the program, open house will be held at the new office with Auxiliary 1983 of the National Association of Letter Carriers serving refreshments.

The auxiliary also will sell a

Penalty Given To 3 Cited In Gaming Raids

Fines Total $200 For Operator Of Chester Lounge

Three persons arrested by West Virginia State Police in simultaneous raids on five taverns and two veterans homes in Hancock County July 6 were fined a total of $400 and costs at hearings Wednesday and July 9 on liquor and gaming charges. Squire Thomas Bellanco of Weirton revealed today.

State Police cited 10 persons in all and three others are due hearings Saturday before Squire Ballanco.

Hearings also slated Saturday for four other defendants have been continued to July 27 at 1 p. m.

Squire Bellanco said he withheld the information on the hearings until today, waiting to learn the dates on which the other defendants would appear.

John Ludovici of the Holiday Lounge on W. Carolina Ave., Chester, was fined $100 and costs for possession of a gaming device.

4 New Aspirants File For Non-Partisan Vote

Four more non-partisan candidates for village, township and school district posts filed petitions for the Nov. 5 general election today with the County Election Board.

The new candidates are Joseph W. Taylor, for mayor of New Waterford; Gladys Boyce, Hanover Township Council; Harry C. Hanna, Hanover Township trustee, and John Peter Bortor, for United Local Board of Education.

The deadline for filing for non-partisan posts is Aug. 7.

Boating Articles To Start

Recognizing the tremendous interest in boating, The Review will begin a new column, "You're The Skipper", Saturday. The author is John Bohannon, an authority on boating.

Mr. Bohannon, who has sailed everything from dinghies to racing sloops, will discuss subjects of interest to everyone, whether a veteran sailor or a prospective convert to boating. He also will answer questions from readers.

The column will appear every Saturday, beginning tomorrow.

Union Chief Backs Civil Rights Plan

Reuther Calls On Congress To Put Teeth Into Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Walter P. Reuther urged Congress today to strengthen President Kennedy's civil rights program.

Among other things, he suggested direct payment of damages to persons discriminated against in public facilities.

"Not only the patron but the public-spirited proprietor will benefit from an enforceable public accommodations measure," Reuther told a House Judiciary subcommittee.

Reuther, president of the AFL-CIO United Auto Workers, said the President's proposals provided "a strong first step" towards guaranteeing "all Americans equality in law and equality in fact."

He told the congressmen in his prepared statement:

"Your committee cannot do less than he has asked; we urge it to do more."

Among other proposals which Reuther said the group should add to the President's seven-point civil rights package were:

1. A federal fair employment practices commission;
2. Federal voting registrars "who will make the right to vote an American reality";
3. Broad authorization for the attorney general to "protect all constitutional rights of Negroes"; and
4. An immediate start in all school districts on desegregation.

The Judiciary subcommittee hearings, which began shortly after Kennedy submitted his program June 19, marked the only congressional action on the civil

Heat To Ease; Showers Due

Temperature Slated Will Drop Saturday

Those searing temperatures are due to ease, but probably not before Saturday, the Ohio weatherman said today.

Showers are expected this afternoon and tonight and there may be some more rain early tomorrow morning, the forecaster said.

But the rain will come too late to drive the mercury into a comfortable range today.

The forecaster said the high today will hit 86-92 degrees. The warm reading will be accompanied by comparatively high humidity, he added.

The overnight low will be 68-72, the forecaster said. Saturday will be partially clear and cooler, he said, without forecasting the possible temperature range.

The mercury soared into the 90's again yesterday in the Tri-State area. It fell to 70 in downtown East Liverpool early this morning.

To Avert Sudden Attack

Check Of Soviet Areas Offered To West By Mr. K

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev today offered to permit foreign inspectors to take up stations at Soviet airfields, railroad stations, highways and ports to prevent secret concentrations of troops for sudden attacks.

The Soviet leader also proposed an exchange of inspection teams between troops in West Germany and Soviet troops in East Germany.

He made the proposals for easing East-West tension in a speech at the huge Kremlin Palace in which he expressed optimism over the chances for reaching agreement on a partial nuclear test ban.

Khrushchev said the Soviet Union also was ready to negotiate a reciprocal reduction of the numbers of Soviet and Western troops stationed in divided Germany.

He said such moves would be a great contribution to the easing of international tensions.

The Soviet premier also insisted upon the signing of a peace treaty with Germany that would settle the status of West Berlin.

He did not set a date on this signing.

In a reference to high-level U.S., British and Soviet talks now in progress in Moscow, Khrushchev said he has the impression that a partial test ban can be achieved.

He quickly added that he would also like a ban on underground tests. He claimed national means of detection are sufficient to guarantee such a ban.

Khrushchev said the Americans and British are still insisting that foreign inspection teams be made a part of any ban on underground tests.

They are insisting on this, he said, because they want the "chance for intelligence work."

Mystery Shot Hits Trucker; Probe Begins

Canton Man Struck By Bullet Fired In Salineville Ambush

Columbiana County Sheriff's Deputies today sought a mysterious gunman who wounded a Canton bakery truck driver in the leg as he drove along his route this morning near Salineville.

Milton Lockhart, 23, of Canton, driver for the Sterling Bakery Co. of Canton, was treated by a Salineville physician about 8:30 for a bullet wound of the left leg.

Lockhart was given treatment at the R. & A. Restaurant at Salineville, where he almost collapsed after continuing to deliver bread following the shooting at 8 a.m., investigating officers said.

Deputies Robert Beresford and Kent Garvey questioned Lockhart, then returned later this morning with him along the route where he was wounded.

The shooting took place on the Salineville-Augusta Rd. about four

Mr. K Says A-War Might Ruin Mankind

Claims World War Not Necessary To Build Communism

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev declared today a new world war is not necessary to build communism or speed up revolution. He said a nuclear war could destroy mankind and even those who survived might "envy the dead."

The Soviet leader laid down the blunt challenge to his Chinese Communist opponents — who believe revolutionary wars are inevitable — at a Kremlin friendship rally for visiting Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar.

As he spoke his aides were fighting the argument out with Chinese delegates at rapidly-collapsing peace talks at a suburban villa.

Khrushchev told 6,000 widely applauding persons at the rally that "a world war is necessary neither for the building of the socialism nor communism, nor for the ac-

Involves Disputed El Paso Area

Mingled Emotions Greet Land Transfer To Mexico

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — With mingled emotions, residents on both sides of the border here learned Thursday that Mexico is going to recover El Paso's stockyards district in settlement of a century-old boundary dispute.

Under an agreement made public by presidents of both countries, the United States is pledged to return the 437-acre Chamizal strip. This is a sliver of land taken from Mexico in a shift of course by the flooding Rio Grande, which divides the two nations elsewhere.

Once a worthless stretch of brush, the Chamizal sector lies between the El Paso business district and the city of Juarez, across the river. Since the stream chose a new route in 1864 the area has acquired 3,750 residents, nearly all of Mexican descent, and 382 buildings.

In common with the two heads of state, El Paso leaders applauded the international pact as long overdue in payment of a just claim.

Not all the reaction was favorable. Some Chamizal residents don't want to see their homes cross the border and said they're dubious about obtaining fair compensation.

Tourists who cross the international bridges from El Paso to eat, drink, shop and see the bull-fights in Juarez know the Chamizal strip as a largely drab section mingling $5,000 to $10,000 homes, shacks, apartments and business structures—office build-

East-West Non-Attack Pact Sought

Would Indicate He Might Be Receptive To Kennedy's Plan

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev expressed optimism today about the chances for a Big Three agreement in current negotiations on a limited nuclear test ban and said he would like to see outlawing of all such tests, including those underground.

The Soviet leader reiterated in a Kremlin speech that he wanted an East-West nonaggression pact.

He did not insist that he be tied to the treaty being negotiated here to forbid nuclear test blasts in the air, outer space and under water.

This would seem to indicate that Khrushchev might be receptive to a countersuggestion made by President Kennedy through his special envoy, W. Averell Harriman, that the issue be handled through nonaggression declarations.

At the same time, Khrushchev again announced he was ready to permit Western inspection of vital military installations inside the Soviet Union as safeguard against concentrations for a surprise attack.

This was offered as a device for helping to ease world tensions and was not directly connected with the test ban treaty.

Speaking of the U.S., British and Russian test ban talks in Moscow, Khrushchev said:

"We are under the impression that there is hope now of achieving agreement on the banning of nuclear tests in the atmosphere, cosmic space and under water if, of course, there are no special changes in the positions of the American and British representatives."

"We would like to achieve such an agreement that would include

Deputies Quiz Man Held For Store's Entry

IRONDALE — Jefferson County sheriff's deputies are continuing to question a suspect taken into custody early Thursday morning here after two men were surprised while burglarizing the Paisley Brothers store and fled on foot into the darkness.

The sheriff's office in Steubenville has not filed any charges against the suspect, a 25-year-old Toronto resident.

They are checking out his claim that he parked his car in the village, hitch-hiked to Wellsville, and returned after finding the city taverns closed.

Oliver Nicholson, village marshal and fire chief, fired two shots at the intruders as they ran from the area. He had received a telephone call that someone was believed inside the building, which also was burglarized last year.

As the officer entered the front door of the store, two men at the rear ran out a back door. The front door had been forced open with a jack handle.

Merchandise in the store had been collected for the escape and the intruders also obtained a small amount of loose change from an unlocked cash drawer.

The suspect was arrested for investigation when he walked up to a car at the rear of the local railroad station a short time after Nicholson surprised the intruders at 2:35 a. m.

New Threat Faced By City In Maryland

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP) — The threat of renewed demonstrations hung over this city today as a state-proposed mediating committee delayed stepping into the racial dispute.

Negroes called off further demonstrations Thursday when State Atty. Gen. Thomas B. Finan said the racial relations committee of the Maryland Bar Association would try to find a common ground for agreement.

Finan said the lawyers' group would come to Cambridge by Saturday at the latest.

However, William McWilliams, chairman of the committee, said he had not been contacted by either Finan or the governor's office about the committee's role before he read about it in the newspaper Thursday morning.

McWilliams, an Anne Arundel County lawyer and former judge, said his group would meet Wednesday in Baltimore to decide whether or not it would enter the Cambridge picture.

Finan bemoaned the misunderstanding saying:

"I had been contacted by the president of the bar association about the existence of such a committee and that they could help in racial matters and they would be glad to do so," Finan said.

Stanley Branche, field secretary of the NAACP from Chester, Pa., and leader in the Cambridge integration movement, declined to comment until he talked with McWilliams who was out of town Thursday night.

Gov. J. Millard Tawes announced he will address the people of Maryland tonight over radio and television on the racial problems confronting the state.

There were indications that the governor would discuss the feasibility of having the National Guard stationed in Cambridge federalized. Guard troops have been keeping an uneasy truce since July 12 after six persons were wounded during a night of racial violence.

Tawes has estimated that the state must spend $25,000 a week to maintain these troops. Should the guard be federalized, the national government would take over the guard's operating expenses.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I prevent my freshly laundered sheets from wrinkling while drying?

A. If you'll hang them on the line dripping wet, the weight of the water will pull them down and practically do your ironing and straightening for you.

Q. How can I remove fingernail polish or airplane glue from materials?

A. If you'll apply fingernail polish remover on the opposite side of the material, the polish or glue will usually peel off readily.

Q. How can I prevent water-pipe condensation in my basement?

A. By wrapping three thicknesses of one-sided corrugated cardboard around the entire pipe, taping the edges to hold them in place. This cardboard may be painted, too, if you wish.

"This is the first step to secure much-needed space," Brown said. "The second will be replacement of the antiquated downtown building so that main office and parcel post annex on Smith St. can be combined into one building."

Rep. Hays, the Chamber of Commerce and other groups and individuals have been working for some time for a new office.

"WITH A new Post Office in Salem and work expected to start soon in Wellsville, we surely must be next," Brown said.

The new building is owned by Charles J. Bosco of Park Way and has been leased to the postal department for 10 years at a yearly rental of $4,000 with two five-year options.

PAUL BROWN of Lisbon R.D. was the general contractor, with Robert F. Beatty as the architect.

The air-conditioned building has 2,045 square feet of interior space, a loading platform of 216 square feet and 4,115 square feet for off-street parking and truck maneuvering.

rights front today. The Senate Commerce and Judiciary committees are in recess until next week.

In his vigorous backing of the public accommodations proposal, which would outlaw discrimination in privately owned businesses serving the public, Reuther stressed the need for "a strong bill (that) will let those who open their facilities to everyone, do so with confidence that others will have to do likewise."

"Toward this end, we would urge that the committee consider, in addition to the sanctions now in the bill, providing that anyone who has been wrongfully excluded from a public facility be entitled to recover a flat sum in damages."

"Discrimination in public facilities has been a national disgrace for far too long," Reuther said. "By ending it now, by protecting every human being from Maine to California against the colossal indignity of a refusal of service, the 88th Congress will only be catching up at long last with the 44th Congress."

That Congress passed a similar law in 1875, but it was declared unconstitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court in 1883.

Defense Moves Overruled

Court Launches Hearing For 2 On Burglary Count

A lengthy preliminary hearing was under way this morning in Municipal Court for two men accused of attempted burglary of a Dresden Ave. Ext. home.

The hearings are being held for Frank M. Duncan, 27, of 1235 St. George St. and James E. Buzzard of R. D. 2, accused of attempting to burglarize the home of Mrs. Margaret Bailey on Dresden Ave. Ext. on July 7.

Duncan and Buzzard, represented by Atty. George Aronson, have pleaded innocent.

The hearing opened with Judge Samuel M. Chertoff overruling defense motions to suppress any evidence relating to personal property seized by police and ordering the property returned to the lawful owners. The motions were filed Tuesday.

In overruling the motions, Judge Chertoff said the motion couldn't be considered since no evidence has been presented to the court. He instructed Atty. Aronson the motions could be renewed at the time the evidence is presented.

Police Lt. W. E. McDaniel took the stand as the hearing began, relating that he had received a call from a neighbor of Mrs. Bailey's about 3:45 a. m. about a car parked near MacDonald's Antique Shop.

He said he dispatched Patrolmen Howard Frontz and R. J. Brookes to the scene with Patrolman Paul E. Carter going to the vicinity in his private car.

After the suspects had been brought to police headquarters, Lt. McDaniel said he also went to the neighborhood and police attempted to locate Mrs. Bailey, who was absent. She returned about 4:30 a. m., he said.

Lt. McDaniel testified the screen on a rear door had been ripped on the right edge near the moulding, the door was unhooked and a wrench was lying on the floor.

During questioning later Sunday, Duncan told police the two men had gone to see Mrs. Bailey and decided to wait for her when they saw she wasn't at home, McDaniel testified.

Under cross-examination, Lt. McDaniel said Officers Frontz and Brookes brought the defendants to the station in handcuffs before any conversation was held with Mrs. Bailey.

Patrolman Carter testified he went to the home to back up the other two officers. He said he was informed the restaurant appeared to be untouched and suggested checking Mrs. Bailey's home located at the rear of the restaurant.

A stenographer from Common Pleas Court was making a transcript of the testimony.

Kennedy Due Rails Panel Report Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy receives today a report on the facts and issues in the great railroad "featherbedding" dispute—a report he will use to recommend legislation to block a nationwide strike.

The 12-page report, ground out by the six-member committee the President appointed last week, will be put in Kennedy's hands by members of the panel, headed by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

The report, strictly a collection of facts and without recommendations, is not expected to be made public immediately.

The President probably will take the report with him for study at Hyannis Port, Mass., over the weekend. He plans to have his recommendations ready for presentation to Congress Monday.

The President, Wirtz and congressional leaders have said they hope some agreement would be arrived at before legislation is necessary to break the union-management deadlock. But there has been no indication of any behind-the-scenes negotiations.

At Kennedy's request the carriers agreed to hold off instituting new work rules—designed to eliminate eventually some 60,000 rail jobs deemed unnecessary by management—until July 29. Similarly, the unions agreed not to take any strike action until that time.

A draft of the report was shown to the nation's largest rail carriers and five operating unions who are involved in the work rules dispute.

the grain to the private concerns, which arranged for their shipment to German ports. The department in turn received payment in the strategic materials.

The department said it was supplied, as it had required, with documentary evidence the grain was shipped to the German ports for transport overland to Austria.

Department officials found later, after checking import licenses issued by Austria, that the licenses did not cover the full amount of grain that was supposed to have gone to that country. They began an investigation which still is continuing.

Seven Austrian importers are awaiting trial in their homeland accused of having mislabeled American grain or having diverted it to other countries.

The State Department said Thursday no American official was to blame in the grain diversion.

Three Strong Quakes Cause Scare In Italy

TURIN, Italy (AP) — Three strong earthquakes rumbled across northwest Italy and the Italian and French Riviera coasts early today, sending thousands of pajama-clad tourists and residents fleeing to open ground.

A number of persons fainted from fright, but there were no reports of deaths or injuries.

The Turin Regional Meteorological Institute said the quake, which came after a violent electrical storm over the mountainous French-Italian frontier, was centered in the Aosta Valley in the Italian Alps.

It was the worst quake in 55 years in the Turin-Riviera area. Earthquakes are rare along the Riviera.

The greatest number of high mountain peaks in the U.S. are in Colorado, which contains 42 of the 55 highest in the nation.

National Farm Safety Week

Farmers in Columbiana County and neighboring counties should take special note of National Farm Safety Week, July 21-27.

It isn't just another of the endless, boring and often pointless "weeks" we observe, celebrate or are forced to notice by way of cut pictures and trick slogans. It's actually a grim reminder that the business of farming is the third most hazardous occupation. Only mining and construction have higher death rates.

With so much attention focused on safe driving and the terrible toll in life, injury and property damage in the wake of highway accidents—the farm may appear a safe haven. But here are some jolting facts about danger on every farm.

Some 8,700 people died in farm accidents in 1961, or one every hour. That same year the national rate was 50.4 deaths per 100,000 population, but the farm average was 58.8 deaths per 100,000.

Fire losses in the 1940-1944 period averaged $74.1 million annually. In 1961, fire cost the nation's farmers the enormous total of $163 million.

Work accidents comprise 31 per cent of all farm accidents and falls cause between 15 and 20 per cent of the farm accident death toll.

And the shocking list goes on. No longer a man walking behind a plow and a team of horses or mules, today's farmer must be a craftsman in many trades. At times he must be a mechanic, carpenter, electrician, and all-around practical engineer. He must also know how to handle machines, and various fuels.

Farm Safety Week, therefore, is more than a slogan. It is a something that must be worked at every day of the year.

Price Of Liberty

Headlines concerning efforts of the United States to combat Communism on distant world fronts again have been brought into vivid focus here with the report of the wounding of a Chester soldier in Viet Nam.

Those who have been killed or wounded in Viet Nam, on ocean or air patrols or in any action involving the safeguarding of democratic people anywhere are quietly performing their duties as part of this nation's new awareness of the facts of international life.

The men who are risking their lives daily in this deadly fight deserve our continued thanks.

But what they need more than appreciation is a deeper understanding on our part of what they and this nation are doing.

The wounding of Sgt. George E. Smith in so-called peacetime proves anew Thomas Jefferson's warning: "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

Strictly An Inside Report

Professional stock traders are not of one mind about practices dealt with by the Securities & Exchange Commission. There is no absolute standard of conduct in this complex business.

This makes it interesting to note that the SEC's second report on stock market practices this year (the first was issued last April) is going to be dealt with pretty much the same as first one.

The people affected by criticisms in the report are going to bridle in righteous indignation, deny that the SEC investigators know what they are talking about and otherwise make a public impression of being imposed on by interlopers.

THIS IS the dilemma in which the SEC must work. Its responsibility is to protect the investing public from the potential shenanigans of an industry whose shenanigan index is a matter of public record and not very ancient history but which never has admitted fault.

SEC can do its job only if the securities industry cooperates with it. Otherwise, the SEC is as helpless as a 10-man police force in a cityful of "fuz haters."

When the April SEC report was submitted, the president of the New York Stock Exchange, G. Keith Funston, said his organization believed "vigorous self-regulation in combination with enforcement of existing securities law" was the way to keep the securities industry in line.

Yet the new report, strictly for insiders in the material it covers, seems to be calling attention to many places in which "vigorous self-regulation" has been notably absent.

IS THE SEC really saying self-regulation in the complex securities and exchange industry is out of the question and the SEC is laying down the lines for the next revision of the Securities and Exchange Act, knowing members of the industry never will be able to agree on what needs to be done to keep all of them in line?

Eisenhower-McNamara Doctrine

Whenever Secretary of Defense McNamara gets a chance to tell what he's doing, the message comes through with punch and power.

In a guest column for Victor Riesel, he explained it his responsibility to decide what is in the national interest—to make sure the United States has a coordinated defense policy.

A secretary of defense must do this because he is in the best place to make decisions, not because he "presumes his judgment to be superior to his advisers."

This cannot be said too often by Secretary McNamara and others who buy the idea that this uniquely powerful figure in the Kennedy administration is entitled to a special kind of support. He alone of all the Kennedy-appointed officials is in a position to do something about former President Eisenhower's warning, stated in his "Farewell Address Jan. 17, 1960.

HE SAID the conjunction of an "immense military establishment and a large arms industry" was something new in this country and would bear watching.

He warned that this ability to buy with public money what others had to sell for private profit—the military-industrial complex—spelled potential disaster for the nation. It was a source of misplaced power, he explained.

He did not spell it out in so many words, but the retiring president was describing what happened in Germany in two world wars. The German arms industry simply took over the militarists, who thereupon took over the government, which could not exist without their support.

SECRETARY McNamara's avowed intent is to keep military spending from expanding ad infinitum.

It already consumes 10 per cent of the national income and accounts for more than half of every tax dollar.

Yet, if no one stood between the spenders and the taxpayers, the spenders could spend the whole dollar and still be far short of satiety.

Cotton Corners

Dear Nephew: All is quiet here and we hope you are the same. The whole place is limping along on one leg.

This is when I would attack America if I were an enemy. Half the people are off somewhere having vacations and the other half are sore about staying home.

Thanks to daylight saving and TV shows that keep people up half the night, everybody is half dead for lack of sleep. The population is weakened, moreover, by too many cold drinks and chigger bites.

Half our roads are torn up and the other half, except for the main chutes, have been made impassable with fresh tar. Families are scattered — sometimes from coast to coast.

Our best minds are unavailable in hide-aways where they are resting their mental muscles. In Washington our statesmen are clawing one another to pieces over things that no longer are issues for sensible people.

That is what fascinates me as I take pen in hand this week — this bickering by wind-bags unwilling to settle issues long since decided.

It is not any absence of wisdom that plagues us but lack of grace to accept settlements.

All of us know, for example, that the railroads are going to modernize, which means they are going to get rid of work rules they should have junked years ago.

We know the civil rights of Negro citizens are not going to be floated any longer under a curtain of legality. The irreconcilable South may keep on fighting the Civil War another 100 years, but its violations of civil rights won't be legal any more.

The federal government is not going to cut taxes. There will be readjustments but no cuts that will amount to anything, because sensible people won't let a profligate federal establishment cut taxes without cutting expenditures at the same time — not when we're already in debt.

By Truman Twill

Women are not going to get equal pay for equal work, except in places where they won't work for less than equal pay. The female of the species will get around it somehow because she wants the work. That's how she got the job in the first place, and no one knows this better than she knows it.

You could go on and on with a list of things tied up and disposed of that people are still yammering about. My idea about important decisions fits this situation perfectly.

Important decisions always are made by circumstances and events, and what we think of as decision-making is not that at all. Instead, it is a process of being reconciled to decisions already made. Sometimes when confusion sets in, it has to be a process of finding out what the decisions are because people have grown confused.

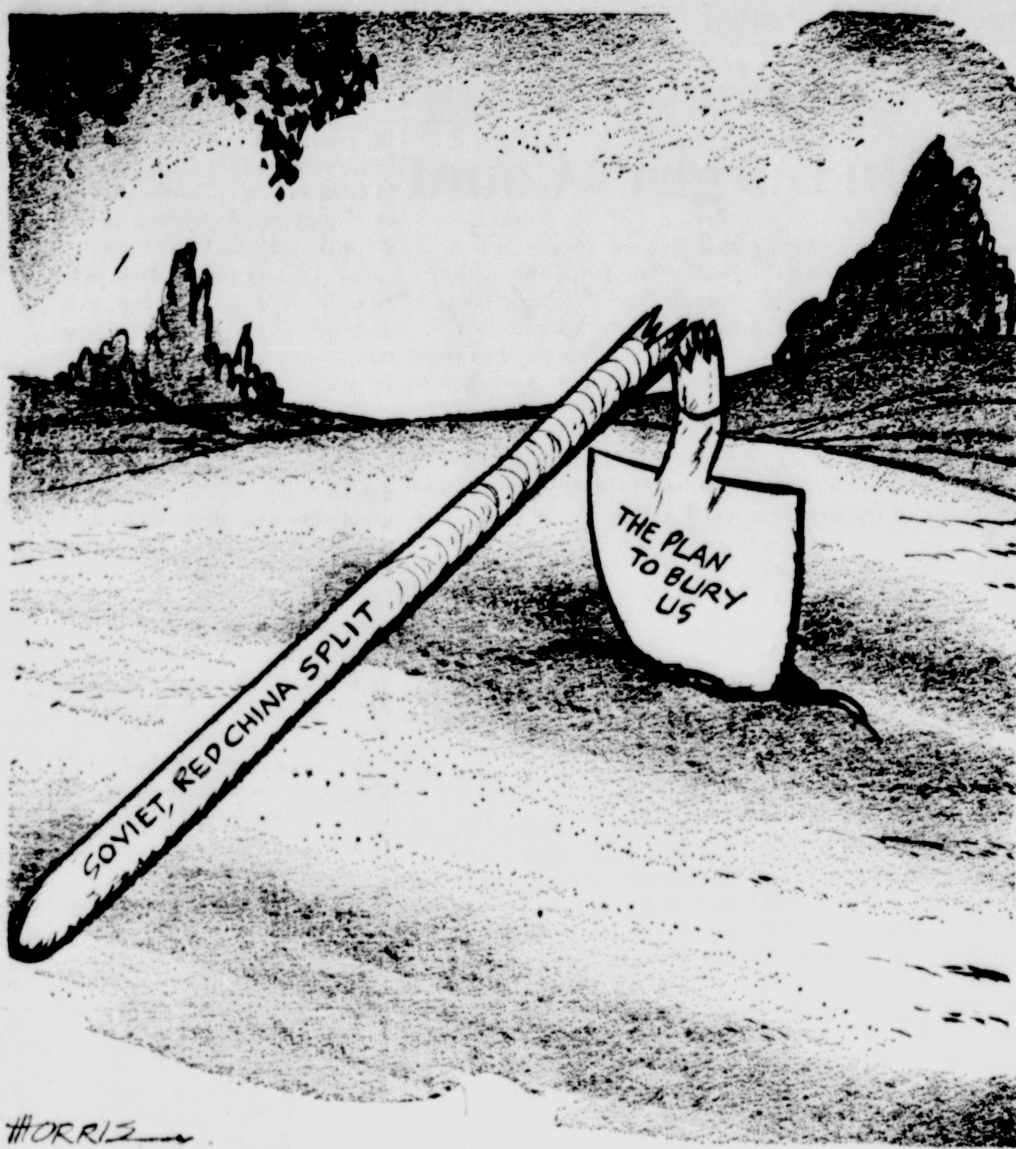

Decisions are dictated by circumstances, not by people, and if this makes me a determinist, so be it. People do have something to say about circumstances, though.

To get back where I started, Washington, where our statesmen are clawing one another over matters already decided by circumstances, has turned into an insufferable bore. The American people want Congress to quit beating its gums and go home where it belongs.

And has it occurred to you, too, that what's wrong with a lot of us old timers may be scorched eyeballs from looking at eclipses?

COTTON CORNERS UNCLE GEORGE

Slowdown In The Cemetery

Proper Collective Bargaining Stressed

The role of Theodore Kheel in the settlement of New York's unhappy marathon newspaper strike is almost legendary. Many now consider him the country's most persuasive mediator. He is a close friend of Victor Riesel who asked for a "solution" to such costly industrial battles. His startling reply follows.

By THEODORE W. KHEEL

It's the prospect of a strike which induces settlements in 99 per cent of all labor-management negotiations. Absent that possibility, a threat to company earnings and employee wages, there is little incentive for company and union spokesmen to conclude their discussions. It's unfortunately true that people avoid responsibility unless they have to assume it.

The prospect of a strike is a stern disciplinarian. It forces negotiators to make decisions or take the consequences.

Even with this incentive, there are still too many union representatives these days who propose merely "to leave it to the rank and file" or company officials who persistently avoid the imperative of reaching a conclusion.

THE STRIKE itself is frequently anti-climatic. Once a strike takes place, its penalty has been imposed. Then negotiators often feel they must prove they can take it so as not to weaken their bargaining position.

The strike itself obviously is undesirable. It's costly and wasteful. But until one has taken place, no damage is done.

If the prospect of a strike settles 99 per cent of all disputes, can we afford to be without this essential ingredient of collective bargaining? The answer must be no, if we want collective bargaining.

If there is one fundamental precept of labor-management relations on which practically everyone agrees it is that the terms and conditions of employment in a free society should be arrived at through collective bargaining. This became the essential cornerstone of our country's labor policy long before the Wagner Act formally guaranteed labor the right to organize and bargain collectively.

IS THERE any way in which we can ban strikes without simultaneously removing the prospect of a strike. The answer again is obviously no.

There can be no prospect of a strike if a strike can't take place.

This is impliedly recognized by advocates of compulsory arbitration, a short-cut way of saying two things:

1. That strikes should be outlawed.

2. That arbitration should be used in place of collective bargaining to set terms of employment.

Of course it can be argued that even with compulsory arbitration the parties are still free to reach voluntary agreements without arbitration. But is that a realistic possibility?

As I have said, all negotiators are reluctant to make decisions unless they have to. Since bargaining invariably involves more than one step in the process of trying to reach a mutual accord, there is the added difficulty that negotiators will feel that any step they take will create a new floor or ceiling and thereby prejudice their position in arbitration if the other side rejects their offer.

IT'S DIFFICULT even without the certainty that the dispute will go to a third party in the absence of agreement to get negotiators to vary their position for fear of creating what is sometimes referred to as a new plateau.

Compulsory arbitration is bound to stifle voluntary agreements through collective bargaining.

Perhaps the evil to be cured is greater than the good that will be interred. But if collective bargaining with the prospect of a strike can work in 99 per cent of the cases, shouldn't our aim be to try to improve the bargaining process rather than to find a substitute for it?

Is the uncertainty of economic distress which can be minimized if not eliminated by intelligent bargaining too high a price to pay for the freedom of voluntary decision making through collective bargaining?

I think not, especially since we have only begun to scratch the surface of what can be accomplished through intelligent and responsible collective bargaining.

Let's not throw out the baby with the wash; the child gives us every reason to believe that he is growing up to be a useful and indispensable member of our industrial community.

Kennedy's Policy

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Two and a half years ago Saturday President Kennedy moved into the White House. In that time he has consistently followed a policy of trying to get along with Congress.

This is an exact duplicate of President Eisenhower's policy and the exact opposite of that of Presidents Roosevelt and Truman who tried to get along until they got mad.

In Kennedy's case trying to get along with a Congress run by his own Democrats has meant avoiding fights with members of the House and Senate even when they ignored his pleas and his programs.

The result has been less than all-out fighting, on his part, for what he asked. He has reserved his get-tough tactics for problems outside Congress, particularly when they meant big domestic crises.

When the governors of Mississippi and Alabama defied federal court orders to let Negroes into their state universities, Kennedy used troops to back up the courts and brush the governors aside.

And he used the prestige of the presidency—by denouncing them—to force the steelmakers to withdraw a price increase when they tried to effect one contrary to his understanding that they wouldn't.

And in the foreign field Kennedy got about as tough as a President can get, since defiance might have meant war, when he told Premier Khrushchev to get his missiles out of Cuba. Khrushchev melted.

But Kennedy hasn't been that way with Congress.

He proposed medical care for the aged and made a total of one speech for it. The American Medical Association led the fight against it and Congress did nothing.

He asked for federal aid to public schools. Congress did nothing and Kennedy didn't try to knock any heads together.

He asked for a tax cut. Judging from the way Congress is going, that, too, may land in the ash bin.

In none of these three instances did Kennedy or Congress show signs of feeling pursued by a sense of urgency or danger or the unpredictability if nothing was done. Individuals might suffer from inaction, but there was no concern about explosions.

The older people weren't going to riot in the street, the schools weren't going to close, and the economy wasn't going to collapse if taxes weren't reduced.

But it is different now with Negroes' demands for equal treatment and Kennedy's proposal to Congress to pass a law to protect their civil rights.

Now Kennedy is confronted with a critical problem which may become a crisis and truly involves Congress, for what will happen if Congress doesn't act, or simply passes a half-baked bill, is definitely unpredictable.

Kennedy has shown—in his public speeches, his broadcast to the nation, his news conference remarks and his civil rights message to Congress—that he is aware of the militant mood of Negroes and its implicit dangers if frustrated.

Even so he became aware late,

Problem For The Court

By David Lawrence

Equal Rights Presents A 'Toughie'

The doctrine of equal rights is about to give the Supreme Court of the United States one of the toughest cases it has ever had to decide. It may be unpleasant to read about — though perhaps not as lurid as the British sex scandals — but the evolution of constitutional law is so important David Lawrence nowadays that the principles involved cannot be ignored in a free press.

The case in question was decided just a few weeks ago by an opinion of the Supreme Court of the State of Florida. It dealt with a state law which prescribes a moderate punishment when the crime of adultery has been committed by two white persons or by two Negro persons. Another provision of the same law, however, provides a much more severe punishment when the crime involves acts of one Negro and one white person together. In other words, the "integration" is punished much more severely than when the races are completely separated.

On the surface, this would appear to be a plain case of discrimination against integration as such. The Supreme Court of the State of Florida, however, took an entirely different view and sarcastically made reference to the probability that its decision would be overruled by the Supreme Court of the United States.

The case by the Florida Supreme Court was decided on May 1, 1963, and a rehearing was denied on May 30, 1963. So the only chance for reversal lies in the Supreme Court of the United States.

THE FLORIDA State Supreme Court in its opinion said:

"The appellants seek adjudication of their right to engage in integrated illicit cohabitation upon the same terms as are imposed upon the segregated lapse. But, as was admitted by counsel in argument, this appeal is a mere way station on the route to the United States Supreme Court where defendants hope that, in the light of supposed social and political advances, they may find legal endorsement of their ambitions."

"This court is obligated by the sound rule of stare decisis and the precedent of the well written decision in Pace, Supra. The Federal Constitution, as it was when construed by the United States Supreme Court in that case, is quite adequate but if the new found concept of social justice has out dated 'the law of the land' as therein announced and, by way of consequence, some new law is necessary, it must be enacted by legislative process or some other court must write it."

The decision which was relied on by the high court of Florida was rendered by the Supreme Court of the United States in 1883 and has never been reversed. In that case — Pace v. Alabama — the Supreme Court upheld an Alabama law which prohibits interracial marriage or adultery and declined to rule that there was not "equal protection of the law" when a more severe penalty was imposed in the case of misbehavior by a mixed couple than for the same offense when committed by persons of the same race.

THE SUPREME COURT of the United States, in discussing the two provisions of the Alabama laws, said:

"The two sections of the code cited are entirely consistent. The one prescribes, generally, a punishment for an offense committed between persons of different sexes; the other prescribes punishment for an offense which can only be committed where the two sexes are of different races. There is in neither section any discrimination against either race . . ."

"Whatever discrimination is made in the punishment prescribed in the two sections is directed against the offense designated and not against the person of any particular color or race."

"The punishment of each offending person, whether white or black, is the same."

It's clear, however, that the laws of the State of Alabama and of the State of Florida still make distinctions between the two kinds of offenses, and these distinctions are based upon race.

This is the main reason why the case will doubtless be a perplexing one for the highest court in the land. While, on the one hand, punishments are equally applied to a white and a colored person, the fact remains that the statutes make a distinction between the two races.

Thus, according to current decisions of the Supreme Court, is a violation of the letter and the spirit of the 14th Amendment.

ALL THESE problems may seem technical, but they will come up for consideration again and again, especially if the mythical dwelling known as "Mrs. Murphy's boarding house" now should be subject to a federal "civil rights" law passed by Congress.

In recent discussions of the proposed legislation dealing with civil rights in hotels and rooming houses, a senator who favors such laws remarked:

"The important thing is to see to it that the Negro is able to eat with the white and to sleep in whites motels and hotels without being discriminated against because of his race."

Vote Blocks Gas Offer At Summitville

SUMMITVILLE — A councilman's proposal for a counter-offer on a gas rate increase sought by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. was turned down in a split vote by Council Thursday night, and the issue will be studied further.

Two gas firm representatives met with Council in a lengthy session over the utility's proposal for a 1.7 per cent boost for two years, followed by a 3.5 per cent hike for two more years.

Council a year ago asked the Ohio Public Utilities Commission for a survey on the gas rate proposal, but has received no information concerning the completion of the survey, Mayor Ernest Phillips reported.

Councilman Dominic Sabatino last night proposed Council offer a 1.7 per cent boost for the full four years. Councilmen Howard Speirs, William Swinger and Raymond Arsuffi backed the offer, but Councilmen Dean Dowdell and Clair Fraser were opposed.

A three-fourths approval — or five votes — was needed, and the motion failed.

Delmar Smith of Alliance, division manager of the utility, and Courtney Pennell of the Lashon office represented the gas company.

The present minimum is $3.03 for the first 1,000 cubic feet.

In other business, Council tentatively approved the 1964 budget of $7,578, an increase over the $6,350 budget of the present year due to increased operating costs.

Council agreed to survey a reported need for extension of a storm sewer pipe sought by Mrs. Donald McCord, who said there is an offensive odor near her home.

Bills totaling $253 were paid. Council commended Eddie Arsuffi on his moving of grass in the village, directed by Everett Hays.

The next meeting is set tentatively for Aug. 8.

U.S. To See Sun Eclipse First Time Since 1932

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the first time since 1932, North Americans will have a chance Saturday to view an eclipse of the sun.

But unless you have proper equipment, scientists say, the best and safest way to watch will be on television. Powerful infrared rays could cause permanent eye damage to those who look at the sun directly.

The spectacular scientific show will be brief, from the start of the eclipse over Japan at dawn to 4:44 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the Maine coast, about three hours later. And only in a 60-mile wide strip across Alaska, Canada and Maine will the eclipse be total.

Most Americans will only be able to see a partial eclipse. San Franciscans will see 34 per cent, New Yorkers 88.

The eclipse is caused by the moon passing between the sun and the earth, thus blocking the brilliant solar rays.

Besides television, another safe way to watch is to let the sun's image be projected through a hole in a piece of cardboard onto white paper. The viewer keeps his back to the sun.

Scientists will be busy studying the eclipse and its effects.

One group including astronaut Navy Lt. Cmdr. Malcolm Scott Carpenter, plans to trail the eclipse's shadow by jet plane as it races across Canada at 1,800 miles an hour.

At least two artificial earth satellites will play a role in the study.

Pictures of the cloud cover are to be taken from the United States' Tiros VI weather satellite, while radio waves will be scrutinized by the Canadian-built Alouette satellite.

Crucible Aids On Training For Students

The Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. is serving as host for a three-day symposium for pre-college engineering and scientific candidates of high school age.

Twenty-two science students from area high schools, together with science teachers from the schools, are being conducted through a three-day program. The purpose is to give factual information to young men of high school age concerning the requirements, activity and career opportunity that exist in the engineering and scientific fields in heavy industry.

Two days of the program will be devoted to engineering in operations. One day will be spent at the Research and Process Laboratories.

This is the first effort of this kind in this area.

The parents of the students will attend the final session Thursday. The participating high schools are:

Beaver Falls, New Brighton, Rochester, Monaca, Beaver, Western Beaver.

South Side, Midland, East Liverpool, Beaver Local and Wellsville.

County Firemen View Film On Traffic Safety

About 30 attended a meeting of the Columbiana County Firemen's Association Wednesday night at Rogers, at which Ohio Highway Patrolman Richard Delagrang screened a traffic safety movie.

Seven departments were represented. Guests were Mayor Robert McCreary and Frank Dickey of Rogers. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be Aug. 21 at Highlandtown.

The Executive Committee will meet Aug. 14 at East Palestine.

Blue Cross Reports

CLEVELAND (AP)—Blue Cross of Northeast Ohio says its recent enrollment program has brought 9,325 senior citizens under coverage and raised the total number of older persons covered by some kind of medical and hospitalization care to 89 per cent in the 11 counties it services. BCNO said it now covers about 162,030 people 65 years or older in this region, or 61.4 per cent of the population in that age bracket.

Improvement Sought For 3 More Streets

Three more petitions asking surfacing of unpaved streets under the city's low cost program have been filed with Safety-Service Director Robert Owen's office, boosting the number to 21.

The director said no date has been set for the Ohio Valley Paving Corp. of St. Clairsville to begin the job.

The new petitions are for Maple St. from Virginia Ave. to Boyce St., 18 feet wide, 560 square yards; Moose Alley between the same two streets, 10 feet wide, 560 square yards, and Fairmont St. from Case St. to Orchard Grove Ave., 16 feet wide, 1,485 square yards.

Under the low-cost program, property owners pay 17 cents per lineal foot for an 18-foot wide street. The city also pays 17 cents as its share, plus the cost of intersections.

The Belmont County firm received the contract from Owen and Mayor Bert H. Goodballet on its bid of 33.9 cents per square yard for 20,000 square yards of surfacing.

Because the petitions cover chiefly short segments in scattered locations, a representative of the contractor said the work would be delayed, expressing the hope more neighborhood groups would participate so that entire stretches of unpaved streets could be included.

Owen stressed that no new deadline has been set on receiving petitions. It originally was set for June 30, but was extended indefinitely because of the new petitions received, he said.

Man, 38, Convicted Of 2 Armed Thefts

CLEVELAND (AP) — Thomas J. Boswell, 38, was convicted Thursday of committing two armed robberies, but a murder charge against him was dismissed.

He had been charged with murder in the Feb. 27 death of David W. Loofbourrow, 19-year-old stage design student, but Asst. County Prosecutor Robert H. Hanna asked that the charge be dropped because of insufficient evidence. Loofbourrow's body was found outside an East Side hotel where Boswell lived.

Boswell was convicted of robbing two Lawson Milk Co. stores. He was sentenced to 20-50 years in prison by Common Pleas Court Judge Bernard Friedman.

'Sons Of Legion' Plan For Parade

Plans were completed to participate in the American Legion state convention parade Sunday in Cleveland at a meeting of Sons of The Legion Squadron 374 Wednesday night in the East End American Legion home. Dennis Smith Jr., captain, presided.

About 20 boys, accompanied by several adults, will leave by chartered bus Sunday morning at 9 from the Legion home. Dave O'Hanlon, squadron chairman, will accompany the boys.

The boys will march in a firemen's parade Wednesday night at Newell and another firemen's parade July 26 at Wellsville.

Election of officers will highlight the meeting Aug. 15. Boys, whose fathers are Legionnaires, are invited to join the squadron.

Midland Union Given Data On New Contract

The new contract signed with the Crucible Steel Co. was explained at a meeting of Midland Steelworkers Union 1212 Thursday night at the union hall.

James Mullen, staff representative, outlined the provisions in the new agreement, which parallels a prior agreement between the Steelworkers and "Big Steel." The Midland contract takes effect Aug. 1.

Harry Petrosky, president of Union 1212, conducted business. He said the union hall was nearly filled.

'Wrongway' Turtles Crawl Almost Into Bar

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A small army of newly hatched, mixed-up loggerhead turtles crawled the wrong way and almost wound up in a barroom.

About 100 of the turtles dug out of the sand where they had hatched. Instead of crawling right into the sea, as baby turtles are supposed to do, they walked away from it.

When patrolman James Kelly saw them Thursday, they were crossing ocean Drive toward the Turf Bar.

Before policemen could point them in the right direction, about 20 were squashed by motorists.

Wellsville And Negley Residents Draw Fines

A Wellsville man charged with assault and a Negley man cited for disturbing the peace were fined Thursday by County Judge Herbert Arfman at Lisbon.

Paul Barrett of Echo Dr., Wellsville, was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to 10 days in jail on the assault charge filed by his wife. The jail term and $10 of the fine were suspended.

Elmer Martin of Negley, cited for disturbing the peace at a Negley tavern, was fined $25 and costs, with $15 of the fine suspended.

Pleas Court Delays

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals Thursday delayed court-ordered desegregation of public schools in Mobile, Ala., until 1964.

The action came in the court's modification of its July 9 decision which directed the Mobile City-County School Board to submit a desegregation plan, starting with the first grade, by Aug. 1.

The modification postponed the deadline for submission of the stairstep plan until Aug. 19. A district court hearing was set for Nov. 14, thus putting off the effective date for any plan to be put into operation until next year.

Woman Gets Job In County Office

LISBON — The hiring of Olive Clark of Wellsville R.D. as a clerk-typist for the Welfare Department was approved at a meeting of Columbiana County commissioners Thursday.

She will replace Sharon Detwiler of Columbiana, who resigned, starting her new duties Monday, according to Robert Bycroft, welfare director.

In other business, the commissioners purchased a new typewriter for the clerk of courts office at a cost of $414, less a $30 trade-in. The new machine will be used in the Title Department.

One patient was approved for admittance to the Ohio Tuberculosis Hospital in Columbus.

The Commissioners' next meeting will be Monday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Firemen Will Launch Newell Fete Saturday

The Newell volunteer fire department will open its annual carnival at Clark Field Saturday, with a number of civic organizations to operate booths and concessions.

Zontini Amusements and Gamble Enterprises will furnish the midway rides for the show, which continues through July 27.

Highlights of the celebration will be a "Kiddie's Parade" Monday night at 6 and the firemen's parade Thursday night at 7. Charles Lee is chairman of the carnival committee and Earl Flesch heads the parade committee.

Blaze Destroys Barn On Elkton Area Farm

LISBON — Fire Thursday noon destroyed a barn on the William Armentrout farm, a half mile northeast of Elkton, according to village fireman.

Tax records show the farm now is owned by Anthony Scheavone of Struthers, who purchased the property about a month ago.

Firemen said the barn was almost destroyed before they arrived. In the barn were a tractor, mower, cultivator, hay and small tools. The cause was undetermined and no estimate was made of the loss.

Candidate Withdraws

BEAVER — D. L. Gilkey of Beaver Falls announced today he has withdrawn his name as a candidate for Beaver County commissioner at the November general election on the Constitutional Amendment Party. A well driller, he cited business reasons.

Gilkey was defeated as a commissioner candidate in the Democratic primary, but won in a write-in vote on the CAP ticket. His running mate on the ticket was Mayor James Camp of Rochester.

Crime On Rampage

Rate Increasing 4 Times As Fast As Population

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

CRIME RAMPAGE: The national crime rate is increasing four times as fast as the population, the FBI reports.

Last year it climbed to a new high. For the first time more than two million serious offenses were recorded — almost four a minute.

The statistics were contained in FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover's report Thursday to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Last year's crime rate topped 1961's by 6 per cent. Every crime category but murder increased. Murder dropped 2 per cent.

The trend, the FBI said, was 13 per cent higher than the average crime rate over the three years of 1959-1961.

Statistically, among every 100,000 Americans, there were 4.5 murders, 8.8 rapes, 51.3 robberies, 75.1 assaults and 480.4 burglaries.

BUDGET DEFICIT: A sharp increase in sales of government-held mortgages was a major factor in slicing the budget deficit for fiscal 1963, Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon said Thursday.

President Kennedy announced Wednesday the deficit for the 12 months which ended June 30 was $6.2 billion, about $2.6 billion below estimates made by the administration in January.

Dillon and Budget Director Kenneth Gordon said the sales of the government-owned mortgages were $800 million more than had been anticipated.

EARNINGS-JOB: Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz has expressed satisfaction with statistics showing weekly earnings of factory workers passed the $100 mark last month and employment hit 70 million.

"These are impressive figures," Wirtz said in announcing the statistics Thursday. "They are not only sources for some satisfaction in themselves; they are indicative of the continual improvement of the over-all economy."

Factory workers' average earnings for June were $100.61. The previous record set in May was $99.47.

Non-farm employment rose 600,000 to 56.8 million, an increase of 110,000 over the normal seasonal gain.

Unemployment in June totaled 4.8 million, a gain of 800,000 over May.

Talks May Result In Some Integration At Swim Areas
KENT, Ohio (AP)—Nearly five weeks of talks between owners of private beaches in Portage County and representatives of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People may lead to some integration in the swimming areas this summer.

Paul Porteus, who moderated sessions between the owners and the NAACP and who represents the Kent Chamber of Commerce, said seven beach owners have agreed to some integration but 11 others are not signed.

The integration plan has support of Noble E. Sherrard, part owner of Villa Beach Club in Atwater and head of a newly formed association of Portage County beach clubs.

It consists of a four-point agreement:

(1) Three NAACP committee members would be given club membership at no cost, (2) they would recommend other Negroes for membership, (3) the owners would have the right to accept or reject nominees, and (4) purpose of the program would be "peaceful and dignified integration of the races in the area swimming pools without discrimination to any qualified person."

Porteus said he hoped "once integration can be demonstrated, this agreement can be liberalized." He said he believed additional beach owners could be recruited to the program yet this summer.

Mishap Hurts Young Cyclist

An 18-year-old LaCroft youth on a motorcycle was injured Thursday night in a collision with an auto on Route 267 at 7th Ave. in LaCroft, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Ronald Barrett of 8th Ave., LaCroft, was treated at City Hospital for abrasions of the left hip, elbows and left hand. He is the son of Blaine Barrett.

The patrol said the youth was headed north and made a left turn just as the auto driven by Byron O'Neill, 17, of 1403 Boyce Ave., Wellsville, was overtaking and passing him.

The mishap was timed at 10 p. m.

John Henry Burns, 55, of Carbon, Tex., was cited for traveling at a speed excessive for road conditions after his tractor-trailer truck skidded and rammed a bridge at the intersection of Routes 518 and 45 at West Point yesterday morning.

The trailer, used for hauling long pipe, damaged the guardrails and lower railing of the bridge, along with a route marker sign.

Alarm 'Inadvertent' It's Only Trash Blaze

A complaint against rubbish burning along Carolina Ave. near 2nd St. inadvertently resulted in a fire alarm in Chester Thursday night about 9:40.

Police Chief Clarence Lennens said a visitor at a Carolina Ave. home came to the City Hall and advised Leonard Cowey, substitute caretaker, he wanted a policeman, that there was a fire.

Cowey immediately sounded the fire siren, thinking property was endangered, and two trucks and 13 men were sent to the scene.

Chief Lennens said there was smoke in the area as a result of a resident burning trash.

Foil Escape Bid

BERLIN (AP)—East German border guards fired 15 shots Thursday night and apparently frustrated an attempt to escape to West Berlin.

Man To Study Refuse Plant For Hancock

Plans to send a former Weirton Steel Co. official to Norwood, Ohio, to study its garbage disposal plant operations were made by the Hancock County Planning and Development Commission at a meeting Thursday night in the Courthouse in New Cumberland.

Joseph Bendot, retired chief engineer and a member of the group, will leave Monday for a three-day visit to the Cincinnati area city to look over its disposal plant.

Norman D. Ferrari, president of the Planning and Development Commission, said the trip by Bendot has been authorized by Hancock County Court.

"Bendot will survey the cost of the Norwood plant, its capacity for handling garbage, the land space it occupies and other pertinent information," Ferrari said.

"He then will report this information for the commission to consider," Ferrari added.

According to Ferrari, the commission is considering several sites in the Newell - Chester-New Cumberland areas for location of a new garbage disposal unit for the upper part of the county.

It was pointed out that Norwood's population is about 34,000, only a few thousand less than Hancock County.

Bendot will file his report at the next meeting Aug. 15.

In another report, Julian C. Wilson, supervisor of the Pughtown Garage of the State Road Commission, said a scenery observation tower is being erected at Crestview Park on Route 66 and the work will be completed soon.

Neil Kravetz of the State Department of Commerce spoke for two hours on federal aid available to the county for various projects.

Defendant In Retrial Cited In Bid To Sway Prosecutor

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Attorney Charles E. Lester, a defendant in the Ratterman conspiracy retrial, has been accused of trying to influence the prosecutor in the Ratterman Police Court trial.

Henry J. Cook, lawyer for George Ratterman and reform elements in nearby Newport, testified Thursday that Lester exerted great influence over Prosecutor Thomas Hirschfeld in the trial two years ago.

And Hirschfeld took the stand to tell of a telephone conversation with Lester after defense witness Thomas Withrow rocked the Police Court trial with unexpected testimony.

Hirschfeld said he told Lester he thought charges against Ratterman should be dismissed, and Lester said:

"I can't talk now. I'll have to call you back. I'll think of something. Don't do anything like that until Monday."

However, Hirschfeld moved successfully to have the charges tossed out.

Lester is a defendant along with

Congressmen Take Off In Demonstration

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air-minded congressmen take to the skies today to demonstrate the role of air travel in the development of suburbs and small communities.

Flying small twin-engine and single-engine aircraft of the type used by businessmen across the country, the congressional group planned to cover 850 miles before completing the aerial exercise Sunday night.

The group planned to visit Ocean City, Md., White Plains, N.Y., Hartford, Conn. and Reading and Lock Haven, Pa.

Congressmen signed up for the tour—some of them scheduled to pilot the small planes—include Rep. Thomas Ashley, D-Ohio.

Miss Carole J. Muenster, Pvt. Thomas Geon Marry

During a high nuptial mass on July 6 at St. Aloysius Catholic Church, Miss Carole Jean Muenster, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Muenster of East Liverpool, became the bride of Pvt. Thomas Geon, son of Francis Geon, 829 McKinnon Ave. and the late Mrs. Lora Crabtree Geon.

Fr. John Cunningham, assistant pastor, officiated for the 11 o'clock double-ring ceremony before an altar background of carnations, asters, ferns and palms.

Satin doves marked the family pews. Mr. and Mrs. James O'Reilly sang the mass. Mrs. O'Reilly was organist and her husband sang "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" as the bride placed a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis before the altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Mark Geon, cousin of the bridegroom, served as acolyte.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her brother, Donald R. Muenster. She wore a floor-length gown of imported silk organza over taffeta. A Sabrina neckline, outlined with lace applique and seed pearls, highlighted the fitted bodice styled with long, pointed sleeves.

Lace applique also accented the bouffant skirt. Her imported silk illusion veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of orchids, carnations, baby breath and stephanotis, tied with satin streamers. All the traditions were observed.

Mrs. Carol Adams, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ruth Estell and Miss Janet Carnes. They appeared in street-length dresses of azure blue, designed with lace bodices and elbow-length sleeves. Blue velvet sashes accented the waistlines of the bell shaped skirts. They wore white crowns, with whimsy veils, and white accessories. Their cascade bouquets featured white roses and blue iris.

Susan Cozens, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore

Miss Universe Talks To Group Of Beauties

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Miss Universe, Norma Nolan, gathered 15 beautiful women from five continents around her and said quietly, first in English, then in Spanish:

"One of you will wear this crown. Be proud, be proud. I love you."

The dark-haired Argentine will crown one of the 15 chosen Thursday night from a bevy of 50, as her successor Saturday night.

On today's agenda were lengthy rehearsals, hair styling and rest. Because most of the finalists speak little English, and interpretations are needed, briefings would take double the allotted time.

Senior Citizens Group Sees Arts And Crafts

A display of arts and crafts featured the meeting of the Senior Citizens Group Thursday afternoon in the Parish Hall of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. About 68 attended.

Guest speaker was Joseph Coons, general manager of WOHL. His topic was "Senior Citizens—Good Citizens." He was introduced by Frank Shone, president, who also conducted business.

The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer, group singing and the salute to the flag.

Refreshments were served by the hostess committee.

A walk-in session will be held next Thursday afternoon.

Mr., Mrs. Richard Strong Return From Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Strong have returned from a honeymoon at Conneaut Lake and Canada and are residing at Lisbon R. D. 4 following their marriage June 22 in the Lisbon Christian Church.

The bride was Miss Marjorie Ann Bowersock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bowersock of Lisbon R. D. 2, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Garland D. Strong of Lisbon R. D. 4. The Rev. Mark Headland, pastor of the Hanoverton Trinity Friends Church, officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with gladioli and palms. Mrs. Ben Wilson was organist and Miss Ruth Ann Pannier soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scalloped neckline, outlined with seed pearls and sequins. The bustle back of the bouffant skirt fell into a chapel train. A pearl and satin crown held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a white Bible topped with an arrangement of baby mums and rosebuds. It was a gift of the Trinity Friends Church.

Miss Joyce Henthorne, maid of honor, wore a poudre blue dress of chiffon and satin. She carried carnations tinted blue. Miss Sherry Bowersock, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She appeared in a lilac color dress. Her bouquet of carnations was tinted in a lilac hue.

Debbie Sue Swearingen, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a chiffon dress of rainbow colors. She carried a white basket of pink rose petals.

Glenn Willis was best man and Richard Bowersock, brother of the bride, was usher. Glenn Ikert was ring-bearer.

The mother of the bride chose a poudre blue dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue floral print on white. White accessories and carnation corsages completed their attire.

A reception for 150 followed in the social rooms. A four-tier cake centered the buffet table, covered with pink maline. Arrangements of pink rosebuds and lighted tapers completed the setting.

Aides were Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Mrs. Ruth Bonistalli, Mrs. Judith

Maola, Mrs. Vonnice Swearingen and Mrs. Harriet Cries.

Out-of-town guests were from Sistersville, W. Va., Indiana and Michigan.

The newlyweds are 1962 graduates, the bride of Beaver Local High School and her husband of United Local High. He is employed at the Akenhead Coal Co.

Geneva Scholarships Granted To 3 In Area

Three area students have been awarded scholarships at Geneva College at Beaver Falls on the basis of their high academic standings in high school.

They are Patricia Krovisky of Smiths Ferry, Carol Ann Freed of East Palestine and Charles Long of Negley.

The college said each recipient is entitled to an award of $200 toward his tuition the first year. If a high quality of work is maintained, an award of a similar amount is made for each of the succeeding three years for a total of $800.

VIEWING THE ECLIPSE

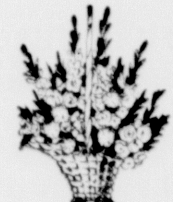

On Saturday, July 20th, a solar eclipse will be visible, weather permitting, from most of the United States and Canada. Falling on a weekend and coming in a traditionally holiday month, the event can be expected to attract a record number of viewers. There also will be a record number of eye injuries (retinal burns), unless precautions are taken to prevent them. Retinal burns from the sun are like those from an atomic blast.

The normal eye can tolerate only fleeting glances at the sun. Don't view the eclipse through colored glasses, smoked glasses, broken beer bottles, or other common objects. Such material will not protect the eyes from serious damage. The only safe way to view the eclipse is indirectly. Punch a 1/4 inch hole in a card about one foot square. Hold the card at right angles to the sun's rays so that the image will be reflected on a screen placed about 10 feet away. The observer's back is to the sun and thus direct exposure of the eyes to the searing rays of the sun is avoided.

Missionary Society Reports For Free Methodist Session

Mrs. Alice Grove of McClellandtown, Pa., treasurer, reported $37,432 was raised for missions last year when the Conference Women's Missionary Society met Thursday afternoon during the 81st session of the Pittsburgh Conference of the Free Methodist Church at the campgrounds on Anderson Blvd.

Mrs. E. A. Foy of Follansbee, president, presided.

Speakers were Mrs. Tillman Houser, missionary to Southern Rhodesia, and Mrs. E. C. John of Spring Arbor, Mich., wife of the presiding bishop.

Thursday's session opened with devotions by the Rev. J. S. Mitchell of Wellsburg, followed by an address by Bishop John on "Holy Spirit."

The Rev. L. W. Northrup of Winona Lake, Ind., general secretary of evangelism for the denomination, gave a report on the recent soul-saving convocations held throughout the country.

Miss Virginia Clemensen of radio station WAVL in Apollo, Pa., presented organ meditations in the evening. Morrison C. Baker of New Brighton was song leader.

Two special numbers were presented by a women's trio from New Kensington — Miss Lois Callender, Mrs. Lois Masarik and Mrs. Lois Holton.

Rev. and Mrs. Houser described their work in the mission fields. They will return to Africa in September.

Following the evening service, a film was shown on an evangelistic crusade in Ireland.

Election of General Conference delegates is scheduled at today's session.

The Rev. D. A. Woods of Perry, Mich., superintendent of the East Michigan Conference, will be guest speaker tonight at 7:30.

Defeat Of Rockefeller Seen In Showdown On Rights Issue

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — "But we'll be ready for anything that comes up," Rosellini said.

Rockefeller, who was considered a front-runner for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination, is believed by many to have lost some support following his remarriage and the gathering strength of the movement backing Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

The New York governor issued a statement Sunday blasting the right wing of the Republican party and insisting that it must take a strong stand on civil rights.

Meanwhile, a Miami Negro said the civil rights issue will be kept in the spotlight with small, but carefully aimed racial demonstrations during the governor's conference.

Albert Moore, head of the Miami Congress of Racial Equality, said that the main targets will be two staunch segregationists, Govs. Ross Barnett of Mississippi and George C. Wallace of Alabama.

Miss Doris Lynn Downing And Albert J. Palmer Wed

All the familiar traditions were observed by Miss Doris Lynn Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Downing of Fenton, Mich., as she became the bride of Airman 2C Albert Jerald Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Palmer of Christian Pl., last Saturday evening at 6 o'clock in the Calcutta United Presbyterian Church.

MRS. ALBERT PALMER
Bride Of Saturday Rites.

The Rev. Thomas P. Clyde, pastor, officiated for the double-ring ceremony. Palms, ferns and lighted tapers formed the altar background. Mrs. Wanda Unrue, church organist, presented a half-hour of wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza. The jacket of re-embroidered lace was designed with a bateau neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was held in place by a coronet of fluted silk organza, trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She wore a single strand of pearls, which belonged to her aunt, Mrs. Major W. Brooks. Her cascade bouquet featured white rosebuds, carnations and ivy, centered with an orchid.

Miss Patricia Brooks, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of sky blue silk organza, fashioned with a full skirt, scoop neckline and elbow length puff sleeves. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations tied with white streamers. Her tiara of white tulle and satin leaves held a theater veil. She wore a silver heart-shaped pendant, the gift of the bride.

John F. Palmer, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Alvin R. Schwartz, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and James Palmer, his cousin.

The mother of the bride wore a sheath of whipped cream crepe in orchid and green print and the bridegroom's mother chose a pink and white jersey sheath. Mrs. Theda Campbell, grandmother of the bride, wore a gold floral print. They used white accessories and corsages of pink and white carnations.

A reception for 100 followed in the social rooms. The buffet table was centered with a three-tiered cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple. Floral arrangements and candles completed the setting.

Aides were Mrs. Louise Brooks, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Ruth Adams, her cousin, Miss Jane Palmer, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Deanna Brooks, his cousin, and Miss Lucy Maley.

Guests were from Youngstown, Michigan and Illinois.

For traveling, the bride wore a sheath of pink silk shantung with white accessories and her bridal orchids.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Fenton High School. Her husband attended Beaver Local High School and enlisted in the Air Force in 1960.

The newlyweds will honeymoon at Conneaut Lake, then travel through Canada to Bangor, Me., where he is stationed at Dow Air Force Base.

2 Lisbon Area Church Groups Stage Family Buffet Supper

Seventy-five attended a coverdish buffet supper Wednesday evening given for the members of Lamplighters and Christian Home Builders Classes of St. Jacob's United Church of Christ, near Lisbon, and their families.

Gosney Raps GOP Claims Of 'Economy'

Don R. Gosney, county Democratic chairman and state central committeeman, today disputed claims of "economy" in personnel policies of the administration of Gov. James A. Rhodes and said he believes there are more employees now in the State Highway Department's Division 11 than there were under Democratic control.

Gosney attacked Rhodes and Highway Department officials in a statement issued at his home in Columbiana after another county highway employee received a notice that he has been transferred to a new assignment many miles from his home.

"Rhodes is guilty of utter disregard of the Ohio Civil Service Law and has no concern for the welfare of his fellow man," the Democratic chairman declared. "Highway Division 11 in New Philadelphia is playing politics lower than the gutters they're building in this new administration."

Gosney said Lloyd Jones of Wellsville R.D., who has been employed as an equipment operator in Columbiana County, has received notice to report to work today at Morristown, "about 25 miles back of Bridgeport."

The letter ordering the transfer was signed by Charles Baker, division personnel officer at New Philadelphia, Gosney said. It directed Jones to report to Keith Shepherd, Belmont County highway supervisor, at his office in Morristown, the chairman said.

"If the New Philadelphia office would get to work building highways instead of playing politics, maybe we will see some new construction during this administration," Gosney said.

"So far, we've seen none at all. I defy them to show me figures that they don't have more working in this division now than ever were employed by the Democrats. Also, I believe the payrolls are higher."

"It looks as though we will have to start an association for the protection of Democrats as long as the Republicans are running the state," he said.

Trial Nears End For 3 Accused In Counterfeit Case

CLEVELAND (AP) — Trial of three Mahoning County men in connection with a flood of counterfeit $10 bills circulated in the Youngstown area last winter neared an end today. It may go to the jury Monday.

Vincent P. Serman, 37, an attorney and one of the defendants, finished Thursday with testimony he began Wednesday. Then the defense rested.

The government called rebuttal witnesses and had a few more on tap for today in the U. S. District Court trial.

Robert B. Kritter, a carpenter, led off the rebuttal with testimony that Robert H. Armstrong, 19, had offered to sell him a $10,000 supply of bogus bills for $1,000 in a Youngstown bar last summer. Kritter said he informed police and that Secret Service agents were on hand to seize the package Armstrong tried to deliver at a meeting that had been arranged at a filing station.

Armstrong indicted with the defendants, pleaded guilty on July 8, the opening day of the trial and while the jury was being chosen. He later was called as a defense witness and testified that he never had seen Serman or Lemme Strolo, 31, of Campbell, another of the defendants, with any of the bogus bills. Nick Zappia, 48, of Youngstown is the third man on trial.

After 9 Days At School Board Rights Demonstrations Halted By Chicago Police

CHICAGO (AP) — A nine-day, around-the-clock civil rights sit-in demonstration in the Chicago Board of Education offices has been stopped by police.

Ten white and Negro demonstrators, who had refused to leave a conference room where the sit-in was conducted, were arrested Thursday on charges of trespass and disorderly conduct.

The Congress of Racial Equality, which had organized the protest against what CORE terms de facto school segregation resulting from drawing school attendance boundaries along neighborhood lines, promised another sit-in soon.

The 10 arrested, including three teen-age girls, were ushered out of the big downtown building through a basement exit.

About 20 other demonstrators, white and Negro, were marching in front of the building and were unaware that the sitters had been taken down a freight elevator. Police said three had refused to walk out of the offices and were carried to police cars.

They were removed at the request of Clair W. Roddewig, president of the Board of Education, who said: "The action borders on near anarchy and is disrupting the orderly processes of government."

Roddewig, who is president of the Association of Western Railways and had been in Washington in connection with the threatened railroad strike, learned upon his return Thursday of the violence outside the board offices Wednesday night.

Demonstrators and police had clashed when some had attempted to re-enter the offices. Four policemen and a Negro girl, 10, suffered minor injuries. Three demonstrators were arrested.

Coast Guard Rescues Man, 37, From Lake

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP) — The Coast Guard rescued Dale Lindhorst, 37, a Port Clinton tavern proprietor, from Lake Erie early today after his companion swam a mile to Kelley's Island to summon aid when their 14-foot boat overturned in the choppy lake.

Lindhorst and Sgt. Herbert Washburn, 21, of the Air Force radar station at Marblehead, were returning from Put-in-Bay when their boat capsized a mile north of the island.

Lindhorst, wearing a life jacket, clung to the overturned boat while Washburn went for help. The Coast Guard found Lindhorst floating about 300 yards from the boat.

Chester Drum Corps Will Air Parade Plans

Plans for taking part in the Wellsville homecoming parade July 26 will be made at a meeting of the Rebels Drum & Bugle Corps Monday night at 7:30 at the Chester fire station.

Officers of the group are Ted Koenig, president; Warren Campbell, vice president; Jim Boyd, secretary, and George Cowey, treasurer.

Plans have been canceled for taking part in a parade at Saxenburg.

2 In FOP Will Attend Convention At Toledo

Two city patrolmen will represent Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 29 at the state FOP convention opening Sunday in Toledo. Patrolman Howard W. Bosworth will be the delegate from the local group, with Patrolman Paul E. Carter as the alternate. They were chosen by the lodge at its June meeting.

The convention is scheduled to end Tuesday.

Warren Boy, 9, Dies Of Injuries In Wreck

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — James McMillers, 9, of Warren, died in St. Elizabeth Hospital Thursday night of injuries suffered two hours earlier in a two-car collision east of here.

The Highway Patrol said the boy's mother, Mrs. Louise McMillers, and Olin D. Ruddle, 27, of Vienna, driver of the other car, were admitted to Trumbull County Memorial Hospital here for treatment of injuries.

Firemen Set Participation In 2 Parades

Participation in the Newell firemen's parade Wednesday and the West Virginia Firefighters Association parade Thursday was authorized by the Lawrenceville volunteer fire department at a meeting Thursday night at the fire station.

Clark Lively, Jack Stover and Randall Roach were appointed to set up three concession stands to be operated at the Chester firemen's fair July 29-Aug. 3.

Walter Sayre Jr. was named a trustee to succeed Roach, who resigned.

A family picnic for the department and auxiliary set July 28 was postponed until Aug. 18 because of other activities.

Plans were made to revise the by-laws and to hold a box social in October.

Dale Hoyt, Boy Scout commissioner, requested the firemen to suggest community projects to be undertaken by Troop 49, sponsored by the firemen.

It was announced the fire siren will be tested prior to each meeting. Stover, president, was in charge. The next meeting will be Aug. 1.

The ladies auxiliary met with the firemen at 6:30 to discuss fund-raising projects.

Judge Penalizes Trio On Dog Law Charges

Three district dog owners were penalized for violations at hearings held by County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine Thursday.

Thomas VanFossan of 5th Ave., LaCroft, was fined $25 and costs — with the fine suspended — for failure to obtain a dog license, and Earl Hough of Henry Ave. was fined $25 and costs on a similar charge, with the fine suspended on condition he give the dog proper care.

Bill Hall of LaCroft was fined $20 and costs for permitting a dog to run at large, with the fine suspended on condition the dog be kept tied.

Girl, 6, Feted At Salineville

Twelve attended a party held by Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Tolson of Jefferson St., Salineville, Wednesday, honoring the sixth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Diane.

Games were played. A cake with lighted candles centered the table. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Harold Ferguson, Miss Linda Raffle and Mrs. Roberta Smith.

The serving of a public spaghetti supper at the St. Patrick's Catholic Church parish hall Sunday will be from noon until 6, instead of from noon until 5, as announced previously.

Mrs. Maude Fidoie is visiting her son, Ray Fidoie of Canton.

Jimmy and Julie Simpson of Indianapolis, Ind., are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ferguson.

Mrs. Cleda Peloso visited Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. Joanne Graybeal of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Strabley and Miss Myrtle Strabley visited Wednesday with Neal Strabley of Salem, a patient at the Salem Central Clinic after a fall two weeks ago.

Legion Auxiliary Vote Slated On NAACP Move

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ohio's American Legion Auxiliary is expected to vote this weekend during the convention here on a challenge by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to its policy of segregating sleeping facilities at Buckeye Girls State.

A telegram from the Columbus branch of the NAACP, signed by William Durham, has raised an objection to the segregation.

"The girls eat together, work together, play together, use the same toilets and showers," said Mrs. O. Lynn Perry of Akron, director of Girls State, held earlier this summer at Capital University in Columbus.

"But Negro girls sleep in one room, and the white girls in another, and it's been this way for the 17 years we have sponsored the girls state," Mrs. Perry said.

"The only reason we do this is because the girls are only 15 or 16, and we believe they are more relaxed and comfortable with their own race," she said.

The conventions of the Ohio Legion and the Auxiliary open today and conclude Sunday. The meetings are expected to attract more than 5,000.

Site Needed For Rocket

Students To Launch 'Junker One'

OUT FOR LAUNCH. All that is needed for blasting this 6-foot rocket into a 5-mile high test flight is a launch site, its three builders explain. Left to right are Fred Crossen, 807 St. Clair Ave., Don Manning of Salem and Joe Kaperak of near Ravenna, seniors at the Salem School of Technology who constructed the projectile as a school research project. They are shown with the control panel used for testing and firing the missile.

A 20-year-old city engineering student and two companion rocket builders are ready for a test launch, but are short on one ingredient — space.

Fred Crossen, 807 St. Clair Ave., and two fellow students at the Salem School of Technology have constructed a 6-foot stainless steel rocket as a senior project, but so far have been unable to obtain a safe site from which to fire the projectile.

The 20-pound missile, using a zinc and sulfur powder fuel, is designed to climb in a vertical flight for five miles, then detach the nose cone, with both sections parachuting to the ground.

Crossen, along with Don Manning of Salem and Joe Kaperak of near Ravenna, hope to measure the rocket's acceleration and other capabilities as part of their senior thesis.

They need a four-mile wide uninhabited area for the launch, because they lack precision controls for the projectile, which might drift two miles off the 90-degree course in any direction due to wind or error.

The three started their work on the rocket in January, and applied for use of a tract at the Lordstown Ordnance Depot, which they learned could not be used. They were referred to the Ravenna Arsenal, but permission has to come from the command at Joliet, Ill., and that word still is awaited.

They have been told that if Joliet authorities turn them down,

Second Army Headquarters in Virginia will be asked to permit them use of facilities there.

Meanwhile, graduation is slated in about three weeks, and the rocketeers are getting impatient.

The solid fuel propellant accounts for more than half the weight of the rocket, which will travel an estimated 800 miles an hour at its peak speed. The fuel is expected to burn only about a half second, or for a distance of about 100 feet, with the momentum of the blastoff hurling the missile into its long ride.

Two small rockets on the fiberglass nose cone will be activated by a mercury switch as the missile slows near the zenith of the flight, and detach the cone, the three explained.

A control board, with instruments for measuring thrust and temperatures in various parts of the rocket, has been utilized in various ground firing tests at Joe's farm home. Movies and tape recordings of the test have been made by the trio.

The rocket, modeled after a Fort Sill (Okla.) "Beta", develops 1,070 pounds of thrust, they reported.

Joe and Fred are hopeful they will get into some field of rocketry after graduation, while Don plans on doing some kind of research.

All three have their fingers crossed that they will get their "Junker One" off the ground at Ravenna, Virginia or anywhere as long as it's safe and soon.

Study Of Problems Proposed In Midwest On Rail Mergers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Six Democratic senators, including Stephen M. Young of Ohio, have suggested that special research is needed on problems facing Midwest states through proposed railroad mergers.

In a letter to President Kennedy Thursday, the senators from Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan said:

"Since the Midwestern states appear to have the most at stake on these merger plans, we believe the ultimate decision on them should, in part, be based on a solid body of factual information developed through adequate research into the areas outlined."

The senators stated their concern over the probable impact of pending merger proposals on the industrial and transportation future of the Midwest.

They said the proposed merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads appears to concentrate the loss of facilities in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan.

The senators said research was needed to find out how much railroad plant would be left if the mergers are approved, whether the remaining facilities would be adequate to meet the current and probable future needs of the Midwest's expanding population, whether the remaining plant would be adequate to meet defense needs and whether the mergers would place too much control of Midwestern railroad transportation in too few hands to be in the public interest.

The letter was sent by Sens. Young, Paul G. Douglas of Illinois, Vance Hartke and Birch Bayh of Indiana and Philip A. Hart and Pat McNamara of Michigan.

Skit, Quiz Staged At Hookstown's Grange Session

A program consisting of a skit and a quiz on Grange rites was presented by the youth at a meeting of the Hookstown Grange Thursday night at the Grange Hall.

Donald McElhaney was in charge. After the business session, the Juvenile Grange served as host for a wiener roast.

William Thompson, master, presided. The community service committee asked for notes for reports.

A public tour of the community will be held Sept. 28. A dinner will follow. Further arrangements will be announced later.

The members were warned against looking directly at the sun during the eclipse Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Lawrence Searight, lecturer, reported on a leadership conference held in June. Mrs. Bernard Glenn reported on the home economics session of the conference.

The next meeting will be Aug. 1.

Chester Man Hurt At Work

A potter hurt at work and a youth who stepped on a pitchfork were among seven area adults and youngsters treated Thursday at City Hospital.

Robert Eddy, 338 Louisiana Ave., Chester, suffered a wound of the right index finger on a wire in the clay shop of Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. He was treated at 11:30 p. m.

Henry Cain, 10, son of Henry Cain of LaCroft, received a puncture wound of the left large toe when he stepped on a pitchfork at home.

In a fall from a porch at home, Virgil McComas, 6, son of Virgil McComas, 744 Price St., suffered a fractured right arm.

Donald Mason, 12, son of Don Mason, 1714 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, was treated for a possible fracture of the right foot after a fall from a bicycle.

Jana Mercer, 5, daughter of Dale Mercer, 212 W. 2nd St., was bitten by a dog on the upper lip.

Kathleen Allen, 7, daughter of Richard Allen of N. Surrey Rd., suffered an injury of the right large toe when a playmate dropped a piece of metal on her foot.

Miss Janet Copes, 39, of Canton suffered an injury to the right thumb which became caught in a car door.

Girl Says She Can't Identify Six Suspects

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 15-year-old girl has testified at a Juvenile Court hearing that she could not identify any of six Negro teenagers accused of attacking her and her boy friend, nor could she say which of the boys raped her.

The boy friend, Thomas A. Giffin, 18, said at the hearing Thursday he could identify only one of the youths, a 16-year-old who, he said, struck the first blow.

The incident occurred in Sowinski Playground on the East Side the night of June 12. It set off a series of racial disturbances in the area.

Dennis McGuire, assistant Cuyahoga County prosecutor, said signed admissions of the boys that they participated in the attacks would be introduced to the court today.

The girl's mother said her daughter is being treated for amnesia. The girl was hospitalized for several weeks following the attack.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

It's Judy! It's Danny! It's Glamorous

"Gee, it's getting glamorous around CBS-TV City," gurgles this feminine gossip columnist. "I just saw Judy Garland getting out of her car, and in the elevator I bumped into Danny Kaye."

"Then who do you suppose I said hello to in the hallway? It was Jim Aubrey, the big president from New York, and looking so distinguished!"

To you sophisticates, such a small passel of names hardly may seem cause for surprise, but things around this multi-million-dollar CBS mausoleum have been mighty quiet the past few years.

UNTIL LAST SEASON, the biggest name working there was Art Linkletter, and, for a gossip columnist, this is like being assigned to get the dirt on Lassie.

Red Skelton checked back in a year ago, after selling his own film studio to CBS, but Red's activities usually are covered by the reporter on the hospital beat. And it's been a year or more since Red's last operation.

For a few rather sticky minutes this week, it looked as if the newspapers might have to send their political writers to keep an eye on CBS. Danny Kaye turned up to begin taping his new TV series for next fall and, since he had just returned from a film festival in Russia, Kaye's press agent set up a press conference in one of the rehearsal halls.

WHEN THE PRESS AGENT saw our little gossip columnist, he hastened to warn her, "I don't think you'll find much here, because this is more on international affairs."

As things turned out, the press agent's fears were groundless. Kaye's 10 days in Moscow afforded him with little more than a chance to meet several Muscovite kids, see a Siberian ballet and watch Khrushchev on a TV set with a 6-inch screen.

At one point Kaye was at a loss for a word to describe his feeling about Moscow. The alert press agent immediately furnished it, and we all learned that Moscow is a city of "contradictions."

SOMEONE should have taken our disappointed gossip columnist up on the CBS roof to show her where construction is speeding along on a $55,000 penthouse which Kaye will occupy between the ardors of rehearsing.

CBS publicity men have been asked by the management not to mention this addition to CBS-TV City, however. On a lower deck is Judy Garland's trailer dressing room which couldn't have cost more than 15 or 20 thousand, furnished. A lot of publicity on Kaye's layout might conceivably make Judy feel unwanted.

Meanwhile, architects are busy designing a new dressing room complex for Red Skelton, who after all has been with the network almost as long as Ed Sullivan, and hardly ever been out of the Nielsen "Top 10," which is more than CBS can say yet about Judy or Danny.

IT HAS BEEN REPORTED that Art Linkletter is developing a wallflower neurosis over all this construction activity and has asked president Aubrey to build him a heliport atop the CBS studios. Since Linkletter has enough money to buy CBS, NBC and ABC, it isn't likely this request will be denied.

All of this glamorous excitement at CBS-TV City seems to have obscured any talk about the kind of shows Judy Garland and Danny Kaye will be doing for the network.

A few weeks ago the press was invited to watch Judy's first show being taped. All of those covering the event were asked by CBS not to review what they saw, but except for a few ingrates, all dashed to their typewriters and hinted that the show was "fabulous," "great" and "exciting."

AFTERWARD, everyone, including Judy, moved into another studio filled with fancy hors d'oeuvres, pastries and wild acclaim for Judy's performance.

It should be recorded that Judy's soiree was much more exciting than Danny's press conference, which served only soft drinks and cold cuts, and the host left abruptly to fly to Sun Valley for a rendezvous with one of his sponsors.

Not the sort of assignation which makes for an item in a gossip column, is it?

One Of 10 Most Wanted Tied To Robbery Of Bank

CLEVELAND (AP) — An employee at an East Cleveland bank robbed of $18,557 by two men says one of the robbers looked like Eugene Francis Newman, one of the 10 most wanted criminals in the United States.

The FBI and East Cleveland police Thursday night quoted one of three employees at the branch of the Continental Bank as saying there was a resemblance between one of the robbers and a berrill picture of Newman, 35, wanted since 1955.

Newman allegedly led a gang trying to hold up a Brinks armored truck loaded with race track receipts in Boston.

A clue in the robbery was a 1962 convertible automobile used as a getaway car. The car, bearing Maryland license plates and reported stolen last month in Tocoma Park, Md., was found in the parking lot of a rapid transit station two blocks from the bank.

Liquor Board Studies Permit Transfer Bids

The State Liquor Control Board at Columbus said today it is processing applications for transfer of two East Liverpool permits.

The applications seek to transfer the permit of Robert J. Freed for the Bar-B-Q-Grill, 119 E. 6th St., to Angelo and Daisy Celio of the Latern Lounge and Restaurant at the same address and the permit of the Valley Bar, 307 Mulberry St., from Hazel McCormack to James Obenour, the board said.

Patience Helps Asthmatic Child

If you have ever suffered from asthma yourself you know how miserable you may feel and how easily you may become emotionally upset. You also know that inhibiting emotions can bring on or intensify an asthma attack. Now and then a parent writes of some behavior problem in an asthmatic child. Such letters don't prove that asthma in the child causes the undesirable behavior reported or that this behavior intensifies the asthma. Yet there is, undoubtedly, some relationship between the two, just as there often is in cases involving any kind of illness.

THE FOLLOWING comes from a mother in Vermont: "I have a special problem with my eight-year-old son which both his father and I do not know how to handle. His problem is exaggeration. In other words he laughs too loudly, cries too hard, etc. Especially, not feeling well is exaggerated to an almost unbearable point. He is an asthmatic and has been sick a lot. I'll admit, but I cannot understand why he has to get practically hysterical over a headache for example."

My reply in part: "It's difficult for any child who has been sick over long periods not to become spoiled. In our efforts to ease his discomforts we may encourage him in self-pity and excessive crying when he faces pain or supposes he is ill. I feel special sympathy for the child or anybody else afflicted with asthma. It's such a distressing experience."

I ASSUME you have the most competent medical care for that child that you can secure. Work with your physician for building a strong body in that boy. You and I know some strong and healthy adults who were asthmatic in early childhood but grew out of it.

A certain boy I knew well was a sad victim of asthma between the ages of five and eight. Later he made the mile record in track for his high school and college. I hope you parents try to be very calm and patient with that lad without causing him to grow in self-pity. When he is most excitable and disagreeable, you parents should be most calm and lovely. No sense in scolding him or calling him a baby when he cries loud and long.

I'm sure you need to work on yourselves — keeping your voices low and not letting yourselves get excited. Sometimes it may help him regain self-control if you send him to be alone in another room for a period.

AS YOU SEE slight gains by him in self-control, be generous with approval. Protect him from undue excitement. Limit the time he may view TV, forbid programs of violence.

Try to have good times with him. Dad should help him make things from tools, play quiet games with him. Attract a few playmates to join in such creative and quiet fun.

My bulletins, "Celebrate Your Child's Successes" and "The Nervous Child", may be secured by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Ike, Scranton Dine Together At Stag Affair

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania dined together Thursday night at a stag dinner.

Political speculation began to circulate when news of the dinner leaked out, but a man who attended said:

"No political pronouncements were made there that will go down in history. In fact, Gen. Eisenhower and Gov. Scranton spent very little time together."

The dinner was at the home of Charles W. Wolf, attorney for the Adams County Republican organization, in New Oxford, 12 miles from Gettysburg where Eisenhower has his farm.

Scranton has been mentioned as a possible candidate in 1964 for the Republican presidential nomination.

Toledo Police Hunt Thief With Foresight

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A thief with foresight or one who wanted to make a mockery out of the weather is the object of a police search here.

Robert Johnson, a salesman for an auto dealership here, said a man wanted to take out a jeep with snowplow attached for a demonstration Wednesday.

That was all right, despite the 90-degree temperature, Johnson told police. The problem was the man did not come back with the equipment that he could make best use of next winter.

Motion By Lausche Defeated By 9-4 Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has increased from $1.5 billion to $2.5 billion the amount of private investments in underdeveloped countries which can be guaranteed by administrative authority.

A motion by Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, to hold the ceiling to $2 billion was defeated 9-4.

Congressman Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hjalmar Nygaard, 57, Republican representative in Congress from North Dakota, died Thursday of heart disease. Nygaard, a former school teacher, mayor of Sharon, N.D., and North Dakota legislator, was serving his second term in the House. He was born in Sharon.

Stokes To Seek Override Of Veto On Prisoner Bill

CLEVELAND (AP) — State Rep. Carl B. Stokes of Cleveland says that when the Ohio General Assembly reconvenes in December he will seek to override Gov. James A. Rhodes' veto of his bill guaranteeing prisoners the right to see a lawyer.

Stokes, a Democrat, called the governor's veto "a cheap, petty, vindictive and political act."

He said Rhodes' explanation that "the measure was badly drafted and could lead to solicitation in jails" was "ridiculous."

"Is the governor suggesting that the Cuyahoga County Bar Association would endorse a bill that would lead to soliciting by an attorney?" Stokes asked.

"You cannot point to a single other bill that Rhodes vetoed because of poor draftsmanship," Stokes continued. "He substituted his notion of good grammar for that of the entire legislative body who passed this bill unanimously. There has to be another reason."

The former police prosecutor said he considered the veto "retaliation on the governor's part because I have been frank and outspoken about his insincerity and failure to support fair housing legislation in the last session."

Reunion Scheduled

NEW CUMBERLAND — The annual reunion of the Barnett and Swan families of the New Cumberland area will be held Sunday, July 28, at Memorial Park at Brilliant. Dewey Barnett of Brilliant is president and Mrs. Mary Barnett of East Liverpool is secretary.

Funeral Due Saturday For Ex-Congressman

CLEVELAND (AP) — Anthony A. Fieger, 62, the only Democrat ever elected to Congress from Ohio's 22nd District, is dead. Funeral services are scheduled Saturday morning. He died Tuesday in Alexandria, Va.

Fieger was a state representative, became the first Democratic mayor of Parma in 1934 and defeated the late Chester C. Bolton in 1936 for the 22nd District congressional seat. He served in Washington for a time as assistant attorney general after losing a bid for re-election to Congress in 1938.

Pete Liske, Penn State quarterback, set single season school records for touchdown passes, yards passing and total offense in 1962.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruise —

Dear Heloise: I bought new all-white drapes for my large picture window. They are unlined. I like the drapes fine but don't like it when I look at them from the outside because the seams show. What is the easiest way to rectify this?

JEAN R.

Dear Jean: Line them with bed sheets!

I suggest that you do not use a new bed sheet. If you can afford a new one, put it in your linen closet and take an old one and use it for your lining. Saves money in the long run.

I have had draw drapes over picture windows too. Here's an idea I have used:

If your house is painted gray then throw that old bed sheet in your washing machine and tint it gray with some all-purpose dye. If your house is blue, tint the lining blue. If your house is green tint the lining green. If it's white, forget it.

The reason for this is when people drive by the outside of your house and see one splash of gray, green, etc., it's pretty. If you line it with a white sheet and your house is gray it gives the appearance of a splash! Don't have patches any place you can prevent them because it cuts up the total object and makes it look smaller.

You will have to remove your drapes, unpleat them, line the drapes and then replace them. But it's worth every penny, time and effort.

HELOISE.

When making lettuce salads, did you know that you could grate carrots to add color. I am sure you are all aware of this, but here is a tricky one that I have never seen anybody do, and my daughter happened to discover it last week.

Try grating radishes on the smallest part of the grater. Does it change that old salad!

DEAR HELOISE: Rancid pecan meats can often be salvaged by pouring boiling water over the nutmeat while they are resting in a collander.

MRS. RIDGEWAY.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you know that you can stuff any completely plastic scouring pad into the bottom of a water glass or vase and it serves beautifully in place of a frog if you are desperate? I find that this plastic pads do not sour either!

Many housewives — including me — cannot afford flower frogs but often they go out and pick flowers off their plants and use flowering bushes for filler.

Just thought I would pass this along, as I am frugal too, just as you!

FOLLOWER.

DEAR HELOISE: I'm not usually one for writing into columnists, but that dear woman who suggested using baking soda on a damp sponge to clean starch off the bottom of a cold iron... well, she deserves a medal.

I tried it and it's wonderful.

I also had stains on the side of my iron which I could not remove without scratching it. So... using the same method and with hardly any elbow grease at all — they came off. I rinsed and shined it with a dry cloth and it looked as if I had just bought a new iron.

After using soda on a damp sponge on my iron and finding it such a success, I then used it on my electric toaster, the outside of my electric coffee pot, and the chrome on my dinette set.

All looked just like new. Thank you!

Ohio Official Sees Drought As Climax Of 10-Year Cycle

The long dry spell gripping Columbiana County and the balance of the state actually is a climax of a 10-year cycle of below-average rainfall, according to Paul Kaser, chief hydrologist of the Ohio Division of Water, Bureau of Natural Resources.

In a report issued at Columbus summarizing a long study of the situation, Kaser declared that Ohio actually is contending "with a drought within a drought within a drought."

The first drought was the very dry stretch in the last 20 days of June, Kaser said. Then he added:

"But going back, we find that rain has been deficient in every month of 1963 except March. By the end of June, the deficiency had accumulated to a state average of about 4 inches.

"In some of the harder hit areas, there was a shortage of as much as 7 inches. This has produced low stream flow and has threatened cities using surface water."

Ohio drought conditions were "rather severe" by the end of June and there has been little significant rainfall since, the hydrologist pointed out.

Students' Trial Opens On Sit-In At Barber Shop

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Nineteen Antioch College students, three of whom were absent from the proceedings, went on trial here Thursday for their part in a sit-in racial demonstration at a Yellow Springs barber shop earlier this year.

Attorneys were to continue with the task of selecting a jury today after they exhausted the panel of prospective jurors Thursday.

The students were arrested May 18 during a demonstration at the barber shop. The proprietor, Lewis Gagner, filed trespassing charges against them.

The demonstrations stemmed from Gagner's refusal to cut Negroes' hair, contending he does not know how. A Common Pleas Court judge has ruled that Gagner is within his constitutional rights in refusing to cut their hair.

Of the 19 students charged with trespassing, the cases of two—one a Negro residing in Detroit and the other reportedly teaching Indians in a Southwestern state — have been continued.

Three other students are being tried in absentia. One reportedly now is in Pittsburgh, another is in Minneapolis and the third is believed to be in Germany.

Mother Saves Baby By Mouth Breathing

CINCINNATI (AP) — "I just breathed into her mouth and prayed that I was doing the right thing and doing it right."

That's how Mrs. Vincent Kroege told of saving her 2-year-old baby's life after the little girl was taken unconscious from a swimming pool Thursday.

"I'd just heard about mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and read a little about it," she said. "I'd never done anything like it before."

The 2-year-old, Christine, youngest of 10 children, had been snatched from the family swimming pool at nearby Bridgetown by another daughter, Kathy, 16.

Christine was back home sleeping two hours later after treatment at a hospital.

Bonds Totaling $1.4 Million Set In Race Rioting

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — Bonds totaling nearly $1.4 million have been placed against Negro demonstrators arrested during nearly six weeks of anti-segregation activity here. Negro leaders viewed the bond assessments as an attempt to break the demonstrations which have occurred almost daily since June 9.

Magistrate George T. Runey added to the total Thursday when he set bonds totaling $680,000 for 68 Negroes arrested on riot charges.

The 68 were arrested Tuesday night, when six policemen and a fireman were injured, some by bricks thrown by Negroes demonstrating in front of the Charleston News and Courier Building.

Runey ordered the Rev. I. DeQuincy Newman, state field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and James Blake, an NAACP youth director, to post bail of $15,000 each. The other 66 were held under $10,000 bonds.

Negro protest leaders had pledged property to cover bonds of more than $700,000 placed against some 600 arrested in previous demonstrations.

Boy Fatally Injured While Making Rocket

NEW YORK (AP) — Edward Sacco Jr., 13, was making a rocket in the basement of his home in Queens.

He and a friend opened a carbon dioxide cylinder and packed it full of kitchen match heads Thursday. They had to make a hole for a fuse.

Edward put a nail to the cylinder and started pounding. After half a dozen blows the cylinder exploded.

He was fatally injured.

Funeral Set Saturday

WILLARD, Ohio (AP) — Services are scheduled Saturday in Grace Methodist Church for Mrs. John C. Gibson, widow of the late founder and longtime president of the Pioneer Rubber Co. here. She died Thursday at her home at 83.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Appetite Blamed For Size 20 Dress

"My uncontrollable appetite has brought me to a buxom size 20 when by nature's original design I should wear size 16. I'm 5 feet 7, and weigh 180 pounds... which is almost 40 pounds overweight. Can I shrink my appetite down to proper size and about how long does this process take?" a homemaker Ida Jean Kain inquires.

She added, "I feel wonderful at 145 pounds and look fashionably slim in a size 16."

Ah yes, that coveted size 16! Appetite and hunger while not synonymous, are akin to each other. Appetite knows what it likes. It's a very pleasant sensation and can linger long after physical needs are met.

True hunger can be satisfied with a relatively small habit. So, the length of time it takes to lessen your appetite depends on whether or not you want to.

OVEREATING lessens resistance to overeating, no doubt about that. The amount of food you want seems to depend somewhat on the amount you are accustomed to eating... and this in turn is at least influenced by the size of the stomach.

From the letters it is clearly evident that overweights who cut down on food do succeed in lessening their appetites in a most rewarding way. They write that less food is required to bring that desired feeling of content.

How to shrink the appetite down to proper size? There is one sure way to do it — reverse the overeating process. By curbing the amount of food you eat at any one meal, you can gradually regulate the appetite.

The time element varies from 5 days to 30 days. During the first week or so on modest meals, you can expect to feel a little dissatisfied when you get up from the table. Contrary to what you may think however, you will not feel hungry from then until the next meal.

In fact, 30 minutes after a meal you will be able to forget about food for by then the digestive processes are underway. Always include a protein food at each meal for protein is high in satiety value.

For reassurance, read this line from a successful dieter: "You told us we would feel hungry on smaller meals for about one week, possibly ten days. Well, it took me a full three weeks to really get control of my appetite. Now, after three months on smaller meals, not only have I lost 20 pounds, but I am truly amazed to find I no longer like to overeat!"

DIETERS, selective appetite entices you to continue eating, although at the time you may mistake the feeling for hunger.

At the point where you feel hungry only for a favorite food or for something particularly delectable, you are not hungry. From that point on, you are catering only to appetite.

Send a long stamped, self-addressed envelope for "Hunger Control Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Revised Constitution Approved For IOOF

A revised constitution was read and approved at a meeting of Pennova Odd Fellows Lodge 880 Thursday night at the lodge hall in East End.

The new constitution will be submitted to the Grand Lodge of Ohio for approval. The sanction is expected by December, when the new changes will be put into effect.

Clarence Smith and Charles Lough were elected as trustees of the 880 Club, Inc. They succeed Ray W. Neidengard and Jeremiah B. Reed. Smith is the new chairman.

Lunch was served 18. The lodge will meet again next Thursday night.

Cincinnati Attorney Fined In Tax Case

CINCINNATI (AP) — Walter S. Houston, Cincinnati attorney, Thursday was fined $10 plus $50 court costs—remitted—on conviction on 12 charges of failure to pay city income tax for several employees. Judge Clarence Denning said the fines were set low because Houston had paid the $475 back taxes due.

Houston was named to the Ohio Civil Rights Commission last month by Gov. James A. Rhodes, but the appointment was deferred for a tax check.

Fast 'Pace' At Meadows . . .

Western Pennsylvania has given a warm welcome to The Meadows, the new trot track near Washington. Last Saturday 9,278 fans watched the trotters in action, surpassing the previous Saturday's attendance of 8,112. It also marked a new high in the mutual handle, with a total of $279,376 passing through the windows.

In 14 days of racing at the new plant, The Meadows has averaged 5,499 in attendance and $158,960 in mutuels.

Saturday has proven to be the most popular evening for the racegoers, with the first three Saturdays showing an average crowd of 7,802.

Remember The Name . . .

REMEMBER the name Lanny Kimble. You probably will be reading about this youngster in connection with golf.

Lanny is a 15½-year-old Californian hailing from San Diego who is visiting here this summer with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stover, 801 Lisbon Ave.

A few weeks ago he played the Highland Golf Course in Glenmoor and turned in a 66 with a pair of 33's, which included 6 birdies and 12 pars.

The 33's were only two strokes over the course record of 31.

Young Kimble parred the Pleasant Hills course in Hancock County, with a 36 on the first round and then came back with a 37 in his second attempt.

In California, he is a member of his high school team. He was presented a trophy by the Junior Golf Association for being the fourth best golfer in the county and he was the city champion in 1962.

Wilson May Miss All-Star Tilt . . .

THE BEST back in Ohio last football season may not play in the North-South All-Star game at Canton Aug. 9.

Harry Wilson, Steubenville's exciting halfback, voted the best in Buckeye land last season, may play baseball instead.

Wilson plays for the Steubenville American Legion team and if his team continues winning, he will play in the state league tournament which opens July 29 at Athens, the same day the All-Star football squads are scheduled to report to Canton for preliminary training.

Wilson plans to enroll at the University of Nebraska in September.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

ED STEVENS, Beaver Local's new football coach, dropped in the office the other day to discuss some of his plans for the coming season.

He is no stranger to the area, having played and coached at Springfield Local near Youngstown. His last job was at Lancaster High School.

Ed appears to be a very energetic fellow with quite a few sound ideas on football and Beaver Local fans should be quite happy with their new mentor.

FOUR coaching vacancies remain in the East Liverpool School system, but Supt. Paul Blair said he has several recommendations to make at the next Board of Education meeting that will reduce this number.

The openings include an assistant varsity football coach, a head football coach at Westgate, an assistant basketball coach at Westgate and an assistant football coach at East Junior High.

VACATION time took us to the All-Star game in Cleveland, but if we had stayed home we would have missed little.

Willie Mays, that's about all you can say about the 1963 version of a mid-summer's dream called the All-Star game. Willie was great. Some of the other stars looked tired. Guess it's that long, long schedule.

BERNIE ALLEN got back into the Minnesota Twins regular lineup last Saturday. While he still isn't coming up with many base hits, the local lad made a great fielding play in Wednesday's Twins-Yankees game that brought raves from his namesake—Mel Allen—who announces Yankee games.

SOME FUNNY names crop up when it comes to dogs and horses. Here's the latest reported by Mrs. Hilda Bigelow of Negley who raises show dogs.

Seems a dog has been named "Maz" after Bill Mazeroski of the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Scottish Terrier was born the same day Mazeroski belted his memorable home run against the New York Yankees that won the 1960 World Series for the Pirates.

As a member of the New York Yankees, Jim Coates won 37 games and lost 15.

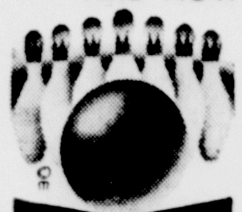

Wins 3rd Straight

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Harry, a 6-year-old bay stallion owned by Paul Minshall of New Holland, posted his third straight victory by winning Scioto Downs' featured eighth race in 2:05 1/5 Thursday night. Driven by Real Cormier, Harry returned $7.40.

Radatz, Dailey, Miller Shine In Relief

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dick Radatz is a huge bruiser who overpowers the batters with his speed and strength. Bill Dailey is a stringbean type who deceives the batters with his sneaky sidearm deliveries.

And Stu Miller is a slender veteran who tantalizes the batters with some of the slowest pitches ever seen. They don't look alike and they don't work alike, but they rate alike—in the upper echelon of American League relief pitchers.

Each gave another strong performance Thursday in victories for Boston, Minnesota and Baltimore.

Twins Slow New York Surge, 9-3

Radatz ran his record to a remarkable 11-1 with two scoreless innings as the Red Sox thumped the Kansas City Athletics 10-6. Dailey held New York hitless over the last three innings in the Twins' 9-3 rout of the front-running Yankees. And Miller won at Detroit, 8-6, on Joe Gaines' 11th-inning pinch double in the only other game on the league schedule.

Radatz received credit for the victory at Kansas City with his two-inning stint, in which he gave up one single and one walk.

The Red Sox rushed ahead with four runs in the first against Ed Rakow and scored three more in the fourth off rookie Dale Willis. But the A's scrapped back against Chet Nichols and Jack Lamabe with a spurt of extra-base hits, including two homers by Norm

Siebert, and it was 7-6 after six.

Carl Yastrzemski and Roman Mejias gave Radatz more of a cushion with homers in the ninth.

Dailey protected right-hander Camilo Pascual's first victory since June 12 by holding the Yanks hitless the last three innings—and Rich Rollins made it a romp for the Twins with a two-run homer in the seventh and a three-run double in the eighth. Miller, a wheelhorse who has pitched in 43 of the Orioles' 96 games, evened his record at 4-4 with the aid of key hitting by John Orsino and Gaines.

The Tigers raked Mike McCormick and Dick Hall for a 5-0 lead in the first three innings. Baltimore pecked away for a tie then Billy Bruton tripled in a run off Miller in the last of the eighth for a 6-5 Detroit edge.

But Orsino homered in the ninth knotting the score again. Gaines socked his two-run pinch double batting for Miller in the 11th, and George Brunet held off the Tigers in their last turn at bat. Rookie Bill Faul was the loser.

EL Nationals Bounce Back To Nip Uhrichville, 5-4

The East Liverpool Nationals captured their tournament opener but did it the hard way by coming from behind to nip Uhrichville, 5-4, Thursday night at Thompson Park.

East Liverpool, which now meets Wellsville Monday at East Liverpool, broke up a 4-4 tie by scoring the winning run in the last of the sixth inning.

Nelson Clark started the fireworks in the final inning when he singled and Don Hancock reached first on a fielder's choice as Clark pulled up safe at second.

A double steal then resulted in the winning run. Clark came over to third and the throw from the catcher went bouncing into left field allowing the East Liverpool runner to score.

Paul Berhar was the winning pitcher. After a shaky start in the first two innings, he settled down and only allowed one runner to reach first on an error in the last four innings. He had 11 strikeouts.

Uhrichville had jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning, scoring on a walk, a single, double and an error. The visitors added one more in the second.

East Liverpool broke the scoring ice with a single run in the second, then came back to tie the game with three in the fourth on two doubles, a single, and fielder's choice.

The locals collected seven hits off Keith, the losing hurler, with Clark and Danny Myers coming up with two each. Bruce Christian, Steve Logston and Clark all blasted doubles for East Liverpool.

Berhar only gave up four hits, spacing three singles and a double.

The East Liverpool American League All-Stars drew a first round bye and will meet Scioto at Jewett Monday.

Lawrenceville's Mays In One-Hit Effort, Fans 16

Bob Mays is the new pitching star for Lawrenceville in the South Side Hot Stove League junior division.

Mays fashioned a one-hitter in his team's 6-0 victory over Shippingport Thursday. On his way to the one-hitter he fanned 16 batters. Ed Ashcroft was the losing pitcher.

Dave Wagner slammed a home run for the winners.

Runner-up Cubs Edge Braves, 3-2

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It is generally acknowledged that Sandy Koufax has been consistently sensational. Don Drysdale has been sporadically spectacular and Ron Perranoski has been absolutely superb.

But the key pitcher in the Los Angeles Dodgers' quest for their first National League pennant since 1959 is southpaw Johnny Podres, the elder statesman of the staff.

The author of this sage observation is no less an authority than Alvin Dark, manager of San Francisco's defending champion Giants who today found themselves looking up at the run-away Dodgers from a fourth-place position eight full games below.

It happened during the All-Star break. The Giants were then in second place, just three games behind the Dodgers.

"The National League race will go right down to the wire again unless Podres stays hot," Dark commented. "But if he keeps on pitching like he has lately it will be awfully tough to catch them."

In the past eight days, Podres has added three victories extending his winning streak to five in a row for an over-all 9-6 record.

His performance Thursday night in the Dodgers' 10-5 triumph over Pittsburgh was not as impeccable as were his other victories during the streak. But he allowed only one run until Roberto Clemente tagged him for a two-run homer in the seventh inning.

By that time the Dodgers had built up a 10-3 lead and virtually were assured of protecting their 6½-game margin over the runner-up Chicago Cubs, who earlier had beaten the Milwaukee Braves 3-2.

Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 6-3 to drop the third-place Cardinals a game behind the Cubs. San Francisco clung to its one-game edge over the fifth-place Reds by coming from behind to nip the New York Mets 6-5 and Philadelphia trounced Houston 5-1.

Mauri Wills, back in his Most Valuable Player form of last year, drove in four runs with a single and double. The Dodgers hammered loser Earl Francis and four relievers for 14 hits but actually it was five unearned runs in a big sixth inning that proved to be the difference.

BASEBALL HEROES

BATTING—Gene Freese, Reds, drove in the four of the first five Cincinnati runs with a home run and single in the Reds' 6-3 triumph over the Cardinals.

PITCHING—John Boomer held the Colts in check with three hits in a route-going effort for his first major league victory as the Phillies defeated Houston 5-1.

Hart Leads PGA With 66, Even Sinks Hole-In-One

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — No less an authority than Arnold Palmer thinks the early worm will get the birdie at the Dallas Athletic Club course today, which could mean lumps ahead for upstart Dick Hart and smooth sailing for Julius Boros in the second round of the Professional Golfers Association championship.

"Julius is in a perfect position with that 69," Palmer said after his opening round 74—marked by four three-putts—dropped the 4-1 favorite eight strokes behind the 27-year-old Hart's brilliant 66 Thursday.

"He was about the only late starter who survived those greens after they got all chopped up by the traffic," Palmer said. "He has a nice, early starting time for the second round and the greens ought to give him a much smoother ride."

Only Tony Lema, among those figured to stay in contention, also played well as a late starter in the huge, 167-player field that opened the 72-hole medal play scramble at the heat-seared Dallas Athletic Club course.

Tony shot a one-under-par 70 on the 7,046-yard, par 36-35-71 layout, despite a double bogey five at the 16th.

It was on the 16th, a 216-yard, par 3 test with a small pond

snuggling up close to the green, that Hart made the most spectacular shot of a first round in which eagles were almost routine and birdies came by the carload on several holes.

Hart, an assistant pro at the Hinsdale, Ill., golf club, was three-under-par as he stood at the 16th. He pulled out a four-iron and one swing of the club later he was five-under. His beautifully hit shot struck a few feet short of the hole, and trickled straight into the cup for only the second hole-in-one in modern PGA history.

His fantastic 66, only one stroke off the course record, gave him a three-stroke lead over Boros, the 1963 National Open champion, Masters champion Jack Nicklaus, British Open champion Bob Charles, Mason Rudolph, and Shelley Mayfield, now a club pro at Dallas' Brook Hollow Country Club. Each of the five fired a 69 but all except Boros and Mayfield started play early in the dawn-to-dark firing.

Of those at 70, Earl Stewart, Doug Ford, and Bernie Haas of Pittsburgh had the benefit of the greens that weren't heavily tracked. Bruce Crampton, Lema and Chuck Congdon, 50, of Tacoma, got their 70s in the afternoon.

Well taken care of family home. 1st floor: living room, dining room, TV room, kitchen and utility room plus a large glassed in sun porch. 2nd story: 4 bedrooms and 2 baths, full cemented basement, gas furnace, 1 car garage, lots 40 x 100. This home is in excellent condition and can be used as a one family dwelling or for 3 families just by closing a few doors. This home is worth much more but is just too much home for 3 people so they are willing to sacrifice the price and sell it for $9,500 or $10,500 with 10 rooms of well taken care of furniture.

509 SANFORD AVE., East Liverpool. Just like new one story home, 5 rooms and bath, cozy living room, kitchen, 2 bedrooms, bath and utility room, one car garage, large lot 50 x 120 with plenty of trees and shrubbery. This home is a real eye catcher. $10,500.

FOUNDRY HILL, Salineville. Southern Local School District. New, just 2 1/2 years old, large living room with large thermopane picture window, custom built kitchen and dining room combined. Plenty of birch cabinets and a breakfast bar, 2 large bedrooms with extra large clothes presses, large bath, aluminum screens and doors, hardwood floors, full cemented basement, coal furnace, plus 1 1/3 acres of land with 150 feet of road frontage. This is an excellent buy at $13,000. See it today!

Near Hall China. Cute little one floor plan home with 5 rooms, bath, basement and gas furnace. Fenced in yard. $7,300.00.

Grove Alley. Vacant home with 4 rooms, bath, utility room and nice front porch. $4,900.00.

Gardendale. 3 bedroom home with living room, kitchen and bath on one floor, also a 3 room apartment and semi-bath. 2 lots. Garage. $6,500.00.

THE CRISP, NEW CUSTOM LOOK OF CHRYSLER '63

What can you say about a fine, full-size automobile that pleases every sense the first time you see it? The strongest answer might be, "I'd like to own one." The 1963 Chrysler is that kind of an automobile.

We say it has a "crisp, custom look." Harper's Bazaar refers to its "clean lines." A furniture designer speaks of Chrysler's "sleekness."

Name it what you will. Chrysler possesses the same elegant simplicity, the same good taste as notable architecture. Hand-crafted furniture. Fine bone china.

Still, you must experience Chrysler beauty and performance first hand. This is no jr. edition car. See. Compare. Point Chrysler's handsome grille into the wind—and go!

OFF THE RECORD

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Friday, July 19, the 200th day of 1963. There are 165 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1848, the first woman's rights convention in the United States was held at Seneca Falls, N.Y. The movement was formally instituted as a national question under leadership of Loretta Mott and Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

On this date
In 1775, the Fifth Indian War in Maine began when Indians launched their first attack on St. George and New Castle.

In 1845, New York City was the scene of a fire which destroyed 345 buildings at a loss of $8 million.

In 1918, the German army began its retreat across the Marne during World War I.

In 1940, President Franklin Roosevelt signed the two-ocean Navy bill.

In 1955, the Railway Express Agency retired its last electric delivery truck.

Ten years ago... Communist negotiators announced their readiness to resume fullscale talks aimed at completing arrangements for a Korean armistice.

Five years ago... Through Red Cross efforts, nine U.S. Army men were released by East Germany after being held for six weeks when their helicopter landed in Communist territory by error.

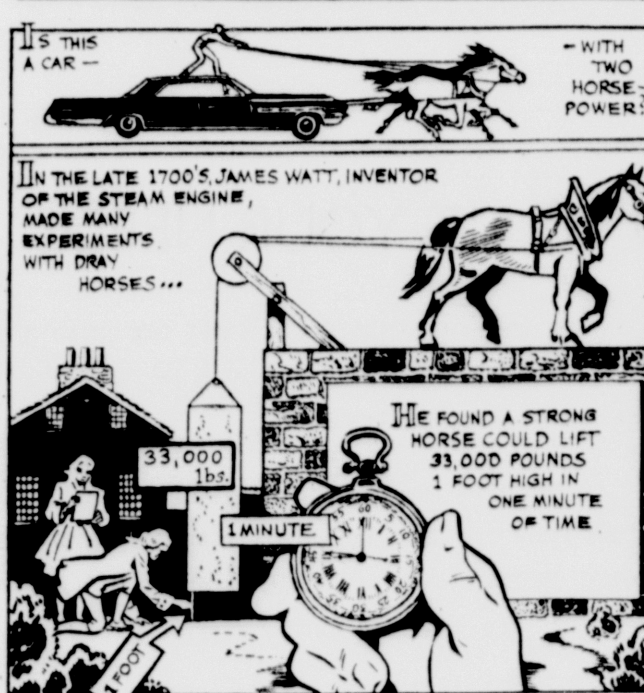

One year ago... All 26 persons aboard were killed in the crash of a United Arab Republic Comet jetliner near Bangkok in Thailand.

How Can I?
By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove varnish stains from fabrics?
A. Try saturating these with turpentine, rubbing between the hands, then sponge with alcohol.

Q. How can I add luster to my linoleum without waxing it?
A. One old-fashioned, but effective, method is to add a little sour milk to your rinse water when you wash the floor.

Junior Editors Quiz on HORSEPOWER

QUESTION: How can a car have "horsepower"?

ANSWER: Not, certainly, in the ludicrous way our artist has suggested in his first drawing, this is not to be taken seriously. Horsepower measures how much power the engine of a car may have. It is figured on a standard worked out in the 1700's by James Watt, inventor of the modern steam engine.

Watt wanted some way of measuring how much work an engine or animal could do. He experienced with strong dray horses. If one pound of weight could be raised one foot in one minute, this was to be called one foot-pound. A powerful horse, Watt found, could lift 33,000 foot-pounds in one minute. Watt called the force exerted by the horse to do this one horsepower. A stronger force, such as an engine, can have two or five or many more units of horsepower. Such horsepower ratings are still used for engines today. One way to figure them is to multiply pressure on the piston by area of piston, the length of strokes in feet and the number of strokes per minute. This will give number of foot-pounds per minute. Dividing this by 33,000 gives the engine's horsepower.

FOR YOU TO DO: Watt did not actually invent the steam engine; he took crude steam pumps devised by Savery and Newcomen and from these worked out the principles of the modern steam engine. Read his fascinating story.

Carol Nunn of Hickory, Pa., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you too may win a set.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I read with interest your answer to the lady who complained because her young man did not leave a tip when they ate out.

You said tipping is part of our system — a built-in custom — and that many people depend on tips for a living.

I'm a salesman. I travel a great deal and I eat out five days a week. If a waitress looks my way a couple of times during a meal, brings over the coffee jug for a second cup, or sees to it that my water glass is filled, I feel she deserves a tip and she gets it.

But what about that sloppy dame who throws a sandwich and a cup of coffee at you? The one who is so busy yakking with another waitress about what a weed she was out with last night? Or the one who is too busy to notice that your fork has egg on it? Does she deserve a tip?

I drew one of these floozies at lunch today. She said, "I'm going off duty so you can tip me now!" Frankly, I felt like tipping her over.

May we hear from you again on this? — SAN BERNARDINO SAM.

Dear Sam: Tipping is a built-in custom, and many people do depend on tips for a living, but a tip should say, "Thank you for good service. It should not say, 'Thank you for ignoring and insulting me.'"

A tip is a reward not an obligation. Every customer has the right to expect, in return for his tip, pleasant and courteous attention and reasonably good service.

Troublemakers

Dear Ann: Why would a person go out of his way to cause trouble and dissension among members of a family? What makes an individual delight in creating unhappiness and friction among relatives?

Please explain, if you can, why some people must dominate others to the point where they rob them of self-respect and confidence and virtually drain the life out of them?

I have witnessed this strange behavior for 20 years and I'm not closer to understanding it now than when I married into this family. Can you give me some insight?—UNSOLVED MYSTERY.

Dear Unsolved Mystery: Cruel and domineering people are themselves very unhappy. Contented, fulfilled individuals are willing to live and let live. They have no desire to punish or destroy those around them.

The best protection against vicious, destructive individuals, be they friends or relatives, is to understand such behavior and then steer clear of their punitive shenanigans.

Mercenary Wife

Dear Ann: Because I believe you are on the side of Truth, and not on the side of Women — as some men claim — I'm writing to express my views on middle-aged Lotharios. Will you comment, please?

I firmly believe that most married men don't want mistresses or extra-curricular affairs. They want the woman they married. But where is she?

As "things" become the almighty measure of success to a woman, love diminishes in importance. And it doesn't matter if the man earns 20 or 30 or 40 thousand dollars a year. There are always friends or relatives who make more. His status as husband and lover shrinks as her appetite for clothes, cars, furs, trips and jewelry increases.

How can a marriage provide a fulfilling physical relationship when a wife takes to bed with her a whole host of unsatisfied yearnings? She isn't thinking about him, she's thinking about new draperies and a third car.

And this is why middle-aged men wander away from hearth and home. The fire is out — and they go in search of warmth and comfort. — VOICE OF EXPERIENCE.

Dear Voice: Your letter is a fine example of what a man can expect when he marries a cash register instead of a woman.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Illia Looms As President Of Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Dr. Arturo Illia, high man in the July 7 elections, appears certain of enough electoral college votes to elect him president of Argentina.

Illia's Peoples Radical party received about 25 per cent of the popular vote. But the 169 seats his party won in the electoral college fell 76 short of the half-plus-one majority needed to make him president.

The 476-seat college will meet July 31 to elect a president.

The country doctor from Cordoba Province has been conducting some horse trading with other parties for the additional necessary votes. He seems assured of 73. His candidacy has met with no substantial opposition from any of the other 22 parties. Deposed President Arturo Frondizi's Intransigent Radical party, which won 109 electoral college votes, has split.

One faction offered to back Illia if he dropped his running mate, Carlos Perette, and accepted an intransigent as vice president. Illia rejected the proposal.

The other faction and former provisional President Pedro E. Aramburu's two-party coalition have remained silent.

Illia, 62, has been concentrating on winning votes from the smaller parties, some of which have a strong following in the provinces.

Justifiable Homicide Ruled In Negro Death

MARION, Ark. (AP)—The death of a 17-year-old Negro shot by a group of white citizens and sheriff's deputies after a woman said he molested her daughter was ruled justifiable homicide Thursday.

Coroner T. H. McGough, who conducted the inquest, said there was no testimony as to who fired the bullet which killed Andrew Lee Anderson of nearby Vincent, Ark., Wednesday.

The mother testified she saw a Negro molesting her eight-year-old daughter on a lawn near her home in Marion. She said he ran and she started driving down the street yelling for help.

Several white men and sheriff's deputies chased Anderson into a bean field, where he was shot in the leg with a high-powered rifle. The bullet severed an artery.

Everybody's Excited But Thief, He Escapes

MONTICELLO, N.Y. (AP)—The fire alarm sounded next door to the Village Court Thursday.

Everybody rushed to the windows to see where the trucks were headed—everybody except Ernest Armstrong, 35, who was being arraigned on a charge of stealing a television set.

He slipped out the back door and escaped.

Gold Slaying Scene Probed In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Investigation into the possible scene of the murder of financial promoter Mervin L. Gold has moved to the northwest corner of Summit County, authorities report.

In another development Thursday, Sheriff James J. McGettrick said a man taken into custody has given some new information concerning the slaying. The sheriff would not specify what the information was.

Cleveland police said 10 persons in Summit County reported hearing gunfire between 11 p.m. and midnight July 5, when Gold was slain. Police declined to name the specific area except to say it was not far from Solon, where the body was found, and near Remindersville. The latter is close to the junction of the Cuyahoga, Geauga and Summit County lines. Summit County officials said their findings were the result of a house-to-house canvass.

The man reported to have given authorities new information on the slaying, McGettrick said, "has given us three names, one of which sounds good."

Police released after questioning Thursday an ex-convict they identified as a muscle man of Cleveland rackets figure Alex (Shondor) Birns. He shed no light on the slaying, police said.

Birns was named in an affidavit left by Gold in Gold's wife's care as having given the investment manipulator stolen Canadian bonds as security for a loan. The woman has told police her husband said on the murder night he was going to visit Birns.

Birns and Allene Leonards, former Garfield Heights school teacher who says she was dining with the Birns part of the evening on which the slaying occurred, repeatedly refused to answer questions at an inquest into the slaying Thursday. Little came out at the inquest that was not known before. Miss Leonards resigned from her teaching post Thursday.

Approves Permit

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Communications Commission has approved a construction permit for the Van Wert Broadcasting Co. for a new daytime AM radio station in Sidney, Ohio.

Churches Council Forms Group On Race Prejudice

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Council of Churches of Greater Cincinnati has quietly organized a commission on religion and race to hit at race prejudice.

The group, set up Thursday, agreed on five central aims:

—To start action in member churches to support civil rights bills in Congress.

—To seek declarations from parishes that they will keep open membership and evangelism policies.

—To dispute grants and loans to churches not practicing open membership.

—To urge passage of fair housing legislation in Cincinnati and surrounding areas with the aim of expanding into a major civil rights improvement.

—To improve communications with other religious groups in the area and with civil rights action groups.

The Rev. Robert Beck is chairman of the commission.

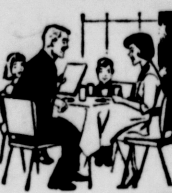

The University of Arizona holds a 60-22 record in basketball games against New Mexico.
